

Contents

List of Illustrations
List of Abbreviations

	xi
	xiii
Introduction: Local Lives	1
A History of Two Villages	1
A Comparative History of Life in the Divided Germany	7
A Local History of Everyday Life	11
Challenging the Rural-Urban Divide	17
The Case Studies: Neukirch and Ebersbach	20
Sources	29
Chapter Outline	32
1. Modern Villagers: Rurality, Urbanity, and the Remaking of the German Village	35
Introduction	35
Reforming the Rural: Backwardness and Modernization, 1945 to Late 1960s	36
Villages into Modern Centres: 'Planning Euphoria' and High Modernism, Mid-1960s to Late 1970s	53
The Return of the Rural: Managing Crisis, Late 1970s to 1989	66
Conclusion	79
2. (Un)Making Community: Privacy and Communal Life in the Village	81
Introduction	81
Memories of the Old Community	83
Ebersbach: Unmaking Community	96
Neukirch: Pragmatic Community	107
Conclusion	118
3. Strangers in the Village: The Marginalization of Newcomers in the Rural Community	119
Introduction	119
'The First Strangers': Ethnic German Refugees after the Second World War	120
Curious Presences: Foreign Workers since the Late 1950s	136
Newcomers and 'Old Ebersbachers': Urban Commuters since the 1960s	152
Conclusion	160

4. The Cold War in the Village: Rural Germans, Division, and the German 'Other'	163
Introduction	163
The Imaginary West: Longing for Consumer Affluence in Neukirch	165
The Imaginary East: Perceptions of the GDR in Ebersbach	177
Worlds Collide: German-German Encounters during the Wende	187
Conclusion	193
5. Give-and-Take Politics: Participation and Protest in the Village	196
Introduction	196
Socialist Activism in the Village: The Valtentalsee Resort	197
Grass-Roots Democracy and Local Activism: The Youth Centre in Ebersbach	205
State Crisis and Protest: The Vegetable Plots of the AWG	216
Protest and the Limits of Local Activism: The Illegal Crossing	223
Conclusion	231
6. Beyond Nostalgia: Local History and Social Change in the Divided and Reunified Germany	233
Introduction	233
Progress and Collective Achievements: Emerging Local Histories until 1990	234
Past, Present, and Future: Local Histories since 1990	254
Conclusion	271
Conclusion: Towards a Local History of the Divided Germany	273
Bibliography	281
Primary Sources	283
Secondary Works	285
Index	301