

Table of Contents

About the Contributors	5
Foreword Christian Echle	7
Acknowledgements	11
United by Violence, Divide by Cause? La Toya Waha	15
 Chapter I Between the Political and the Particular
Jihadist and Far-Right Extremism: Subjectivity, Embodiment and Imaginaries of Violence Kevin McDonald	33
Frenzied Crowds, Radical Politics and Consolidation of Democracy: The Indian Puzzle Subrata K. Mitra	51
Radicalisation, Terrorism and Democratisation in Southeast Asia Aurel Croissant	71
 Chapter II Region and Radicalisation
Contention, Escalation and Cycles of Vengeance: Reflections on the Global Threat Landscape Rohan Gunaratna	101

Table of Contents

The Historical Context and Regional Social Network Dynamics of Radicalisation and Recruitment of Islamic State Foreign Terrorist Fighters in Indonesia and its Southeast Asian Neighbours 117

Greg Barton

Radicalisation in South Asia: Left, Right and Secular 141

D. Suba Chandran

Chapter III The Global and the Local

Trends of Contemporary Terrorism in Pakistan 155

Khuram Iqbal

Malaysian Women and Islamic Radicalisation in the Home 177

Serina Rahman

Chapter IV Conclusion

Comparing Violence in Asia and Europe – A Contribution to Solving a Complex Problem 207

La Toya Waha

Index 219