

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

- Introduction: Religion, Law, and Politics, American Style, by Elizabeth Shakman Hurd and Winnifred Fallers Sullivan 1

PART I

Making Religion American

1. A Home, Made Abroad: American Religion
from Colonies Through the Civil War,
by Evan Haefeli 19
2. "A Perfect, Irrevocable Gift": Recognizing the Proprietary Church in Puerto Rico 1898-1908,
by David Maldonado Rivera 37
3. Home Rule: Equitable Justice in Progressive Chicago and the Philippines,
by Nancy Buenger 51

4. America Is Hard to See,
by Courtney Bender 91

PART II

Making Ourselves

5. Homemaking in Palestine: Jessie Sampter,
Religion, and Relation, by Sarah Imhoff 115
6. On the Abroad of a Different Home: Muhammad Ali
in Micro-Scope, by M. Cooper Harriss 130
7. Domestic Bones, Foreign Land, and the Kingdom Come: Jurisdictions of Religion in Contemporary Hawaii, by Greg Johnson 148
8. "Legacy," by Matthew Scherer 167

PART III

Inside/Outside

9. The Rule of Law, by Winnifred Fallers Sullivan 183
10. Double Standards in a Tripartite World, by Jolyon Baraka Thomas 196
11. The Cultural Politics of Yoga in India and the United States, by Sunila S. Kale and Christian Lee Noverzke 210
12. Border Religion, by Elizabeth Shakman Hurd 228

PART IV

Abroad

13. Established Authorities: Theology, the State, and the Apartheid Struggle, by Melani McAlister 249

14. In Search of Normcore?

Religion at Home and Abroad in Norway,
by Helge Årsheim 273

15. When Home Becomes Abroad, and Abroad
Becomes Home: Thinking American Empire
Through a New Sudan, by Noah Salomon 288

Afterword: Double Vision, Double Cross:
American Exceptionalism, Borders, and the Study of Religion, by Pamela E. Klassen 304

.....

Bibliography 315

List of Contributors 337

Index 339