

Contents

The Editor	ix
The Contributors	x
On transliteration	xiv
Rethinking the body in South Asian traditions	1
DIANA DIMITROVA
1 The corporeal vaṃśa: Seizure and restriction of the body in the Harivaṃśa	9
CHRISTOPHER AUSTIN
2 Tinged with pain and promise: Images of bodies in the poetry of Appar	27
ANNE E. MONIUS
3 Allegorical representations of the body in the Vijñānagīta by Keśavdās	47
STEFANIA CAVALIERI
4 Devotional bodies and embodied devotion: Yoga, bhakti, and pilgrimage in the Radhasoami tradition	69
DIANA DIMITROVA
5 Bodies in Cracking India	84
NANDI BHATIA

6	Cultivating a female body: Appropriation of female rituality (samskāra) within the hijra community	92
	MATHIEU BOISVERT
7	When humans pose as Hindu gods	116
	GITA PAI
	Index	137