

Contents

Preface . . . . .	vii
Acknowledgement. . . . .	ix
List of Abbreviations . . . . .	xiv
Introduction . . . . .	1
Early Pioneers (1832–1916)
1. Ganame Fathme Pauline: The ambassador. . . . .	4
Swedish Mission and missionaries in female education . . . . .	9
1. Gustava Lundahl: Her legacy – a girls’ school. . . . .	20
2. Rosa Månsson: Her talented and strong women . . . . .	24
3. Emelie Lundahl: Her memories of 1875–1895 . . . . .	27
Evangelical women pioneers bring the gospel. . . . .	39
1. Aster Ganno: Writer, translator and missionary . . . . .	39
2. Lidia Dimboo: Envoy of the gospel and wife of Onesimos . . . . .	48
3. Feben Hirphe: Pioneer in education . . . . .	62
Slavery and human trafficking . . . . .	72
1. Slave children from the Horn of Africa . . . . .	73
2. Human trafficking . . . . .	78
3. Ethiopian female migrant workers in Saudi Arabia . . . . .	81

Mekane Yesus – The Mother Church

Addis Ababa in 1904 and the first Protestant missionary . . . . .	92
From the Evangelical congregation to the Addis Ababa Mekane Yesus Church. . . . .	105
1. Fifty years of women’s ministry (1925–1975) . . . . .	108
2. Gumesh Wolde-Mikael: Wife of Qes Gebre Ewostateos and Bible woman . . . . .	112
3. Aster Woldemariam: Mama Aster . . . . .	116
4. Abeba Kiflegzy: Leader – woman, and music affairs . . . . .	120
5. Elleni Alemayehu: Besides every great man, there is a great woman . . . . .	125
6. Tihun Tola: In the steps of Hakim Cederqvist . . . . .	130
7. Urgue Gambiaa: Ethiopia’s first woman graduate in Economy . . .	133

Envoys of the Gospel

American Mission: Sayyoo (1919), Addis Ababa (1923) and South Ethiopia (1929). . . . .	141
1. One family: Three generations of women missionaries . . . . .	155
2. Chawake Alabe: A woman of great faith . . . . .	161
3. Elizabeth Karorsa: Aunt of many . . . . .	166
4. Negasso Gidada: My heroines . . . . .	174
Swedish Mission: Naqamte (1923) and Nedjo (1927) . . . . .	179
1. Hilma Olsson: She risked her life to rescue many . . . . .	181
2. Tsehay Tolassa: God in the midst of suffering . . . . .	185
3. Lydia Larsson: ‘We understood that we liked each other’ . . . . .	196

German Mission: A dream came true (1928) . . . . .	204
1. Nasisee Liiban: Capo Protestanti . . . . .	216
2. Qanaatuu Karorsaa: ‘... worth far more than jewels’ . . . . .	219
3. The women missionaries: Their invisible ministry. . . . .	223
4. Annemarie Weseloh: Pioneer in Public Health & in HIV/AIDS . . . . .	228
5. Margaret Doorenbos: Called to the classroom . . . . .	234
Norwegian Mission: The seed bore fruit (1948). . . . .	241
1. Women pioneers: Rahel Wato, Elsabet Gulti and Mariam Dicha. . . . .	250
2. Jorunn Hamre: From Kvinesdal to the end of the earth . . . . .	254
The ministry and visions of women today
Women leaders. . . . .	266
1. Bekure Daba: The first ordained woman pastor in Ethiopia . . . . .	266
2. Elsabet Gulti: Big challenges, but God provided. . . . .	274
3. Sophie Gebreyes: ‘Know what you want and work towards it’ . . . . .	278
Projects by and for women . . . . .	284
1. My Sisters: Support for destitute women at Nefas Silk Lafto . . . . .	284
2. Biftu Bole congregation, Gudina Tumsa Foundation and Terkanfi . . . . .	287
3. Women of Hope: Project Hannah . . . . .	292
4. The network of female theology students: Let her . . . . .	294
In the diaspora and at home. . . . .	299
1. Belletech Deressa: From Ethiopia to seventy countries . . . . .	299
2. Chaltu Dereessa: ‘Together we are stronger’. . . . .	307
3. Gennet Awaloum: A stranger still and yet, God is the same everywhere . . . . .	312
Bibliography . . . . .	318