

This collection of essays illuminates the role of angelology in Judaism and Christianity in relation to hermeneutical issues, cosmology, liturgical practices, religio-magical texts, homiletic tradition, and the interpretation and development of ancient ideas.