

Firms, Institutions, and the State in East Asia

A Festschrift in Honour of Werner Pascha

Edited by
Cornelia Storz and Markus Taube

Metropolis-Verlag
Marburg 2020

Contents

Preface 9

Part I: Firms, Leadership and Management

Mark Lehrer and Stefan Schmid

Personalizing Perceptions of the Mittelstand Business:
German Family Firms in Comparative Context 19

Ralf Bebenroth

Alienation Effects on Managers of a German Target Taken Over by a Japanese Firm 35

Tim Goydke

Embracing a New Perspective on Japanese Culture and Corporate Leadership 49

Nele Noesselt

Leadership Reloaded: Conceptual Reflections and Recent Constellations 63

Martin Hemmert

Japanese-Style and Korean-Style Management Revisited:
Strengths, Weaknesses and Perspectives 75

Thanos Fragkandreas and Cornelia Storz

Knowledge Diffusion in Management:
Kaizen in Sub-Saharan Africa 89

Markus Taube

- Taking Stock of East Asia's Emerging World Market Leaders:
Colossi Close to the State, Innovative Start-Ups and Globally
Oriented Guerrilla Entrepreneurs 111

Part II: Network, Sectors and Technologies

Sven Horak

- Are Informal Networks Predominantly an Emerging Market
Phenomenon? Integrating Yongo (Korea) and Jinmyaku (Japan)
into the Current Discourse 123

Dieter Cassel and Jörg Mahlich

- What Shapes the Pharmaceutical Market in Japan? Institutional
Framework and Challenges of the Japanese Drug Industry 137

Florian Coulmas

- Nursing Robots on the Rise in Japan: Culture or Demographics? 153

Yveline Lecler

- The Promotion of Micro-Mobility in Japan:
The Challenge of Ultra-Compact Electric Vehicles 159

Part III: State and Diplomacy

Simon Ahrens and Joachim Ahrens

- The Concept of the Developmental State: Towards a New Approach to Development Cooperation in Sub-Saharan Africa? 179

Michael Jakobsen

- Exploring Key External and Internal Factors Affecting State
Performance in Southeast Asia 199

Flemming Christiansen

- China's Political Economy since 1978:
Intentionality and Ideology 227

Thomas Heberer

Decoding the Chinese Puzzle: Rapid Economic Growth and Social Development Despite a High Level of Corruption 243

Seán Golden

70 Years of the Peoples Republic of China:
The Risks in Question 267

Friederike Bosse

160 Years of Diplomatic Relations between Germany and Japan:
What Lies Behind the Celebrating? 283

Sunkung Choi

Economic Diplomacy and Influence on Stock Market Expectation:
A Case of the EU and Chinese Summit Talks' Influence on the Aviation Industry 295

Roger Greatrex

Recent Issues in Trademark Adjudication in Japanese Courts 311

Part IV: Economic Policy, Discourse and Demographic Changes

Markus Heckel and Franz Waldenberger

Deflation – Japan's Endless Battle 329

Karen A. Shire

Employment Transformations, Social Inequalities and Identification with the Middle Class in 21st Century Japan 347

Rüdiger Frank

Challenging the Korean Fear of High Costs:
German Unification as an Economic Win-Win Situation 357

Carsten Herrmann-Pillath

Japan on the Way Towards Post-Capitalism?
Reflections on an Ongoing Discourse Among Japanese Scholars 375

Ibrahim Öztürk

The Case of Middle-Income Trap in China and its Institutional
Links to the Belt and Road Initiative 391

Jörg Raupach-Sumiya

Applying Regional Value-Added Analysis of Renewable Energy
to Policy Formation on Municipality Level:
Implications from Case Studies in Japan 417

List of authors 435