

Contents

I. INTRODUCTION

- | | |
|---|----|
| 1. The Value and Distinctiveness of Analytic Theology | 3 |
| 2. Three Theological Objections: History, Mystery, Practice | 14 |
| 3. Analytic Theology in the Religious Studies Academy | 23 |

II. FOUNDATIONS

- | | |
|--|----|
| 4. Why Do They Write That Way? Analytic Philosophy and its Discontents | 33 |
| 5. What Is Analytic Theology? | 48 |

III. THEOLOGICAL ANALYTIC THEOLOGY

- | | |
|---|-----|
| 6. A Theology of Analytic Reason | 81 |
| 7. How to Avoid Idolatry | 108 |
| 8. The Real Trouble with Ontotheology and Univocity | 130 |
| 9. On “Theistic Personalism” | 159 |
| 10. Analytic Theology as a Spiritual Practice | 175 |

IV. ANALYTIC THEOLOGY AND THE ACADEMIC STUDY OF RELIGION

- | | |
|--|-----|
| 11. Inquiry and Argument in the Secular Academy | 193 |
| 12. Naturalism as Metaphysics, Reduction without Fears | 218 |
| 13. The Hegemony of Critique | 241 |
| 14. Analytic Theology as Rigorous Appreciation: On Normative Inquiry in the Academic Study of Religion | 265 |
| Conclusion: Analytic Theology after the Postsecular | 287 |

- | | |
|---------------------|-----|
| Bibliography | 301 |
| Index | 317 |