

Contents

Foreword	IX
Brian Ogilvie
Preface	XII
Acknowledgments	XVII
List of Illustrations	XX

PART I

The Flowering of Ecology

1	Before the Transformation	3
	Introduction	3
	Art and Science Intertwined	5
	Insects in Drawings and Manuscripts	8
	Still Life Painting	16
	Finding God in Nature	17
	Natural History of Insects in Printed Works	21
	Publishing Illustrated Natural History Books	27
	Studies of Insect Metamorphosis	29
2	A Life Investigated	39
	Growing up in Frankfurt am Main	39
	Early Fascination with Insects	49
	Marriage and the Move to Nuremberg	52
	The Flower Books	59
	Beginnings of the Raupen Books	66
	Merian's Motivations	69
3	Described and Painted from Life	74
	Fieldwork: The Basis of Merian's Empirical Studies	75
	Laboratory Work	78
	Merian's Study Journal	83
	Merian's Other Sources of Information	89
	Illustrating the Raupen Book	90
	Composing the Images	92

- Making the Plates 96
Merian's Counterproofs 98
Composing the Text 101
Financing, Printing and Marketing the Raupen Book 103
- 4 For the Benefit of Naturalists 108
The Rupsen Books 110
The Last Caterpillar Book 117
Later Editions and Their Lasting Effects 117
Recognition and Reception by Near Contemporaries 121
Merian's Influence on Natural History 122
Merian's Reputation as a Naturalist 125

PART 2

Plates, Translation and Commentary

- Maria Sibylla Merian's Caterpillar Book 129
- Appendix: Translated Excerpts from Merian's Study Journal 363
Bibliography 369
Index 380