

Contents

Acknowledgements VII

List of Figures and Tables VIII

- 1 Introduction 1
 - 1 Historical Involvement of Women in Crime in Early Modern Europe 2
 - 2 Crime and Gender in an Early Modern Italian City 10
 - 3 Criminal Court Records as Sources for Social History 17
 - 4 Composition of This Book 22

- 2 Women's Roles, Institutions, and Social Control 25
 - 1 Political and Demographic Developments 26
 - 2 Household Structures, Property Rights and Legal Capacity 30
 - 3 Women within the Urban Economy 34
 - 4 Interlocking Systems of Assistance and Control 39
 - 5 Conclusion: Agency within a Culture of Constraint 43

- 3 The Torrone and the Prosecution of Crimes 44
 - 1 The Tribunale del Torrone within Bologna's Legal Landscape 45
 - 2 The Administration of Criminal Justice 49
 - 3 Criminal Procedures 53
 - 4 Italian Women's Involvement in Recorded Crime 60
 - 5 The Character of Indicted Crime in Bologna 64
 - 6 Gender Dynamics in the Sentencing of Crimes 71
 - 7 Conclusion: Distinguishing Features of Women's Prosecution 78

- 4 Denunciations and the Uses of Justice 81
 - 1 Women and the Uses of Justice 82
 - 2 Denunciations before the Torrone 85
 - 3 The Torrone as a Forum for Conflict Resolution 88
 - 4 The Urban Context of Women's Litigation 90
 - 5 The Users of Justice 93
 - 6 Objectives of Litigation 98
 - 7 Conclusion: Criminal Litigation, Gender and Agency 105

- 5 Violence and the Politics of Everyday Life 108
 - 1 The Culture of Violence between Prosecution and Reconciliation 109

2	Lethal Violence in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries	118
3	Insults and the Politics of Daily Life	123
4	The Importance of Petty Physical Violence	132
5	Severity and Weapons	135
6	Violence and Social Relations	145
7	The Gendered Geography of Violence	156
8	Framing Men's and Women's Violence	165
9	Conclusion: Everyday Violence and the Uses of Justice	172
6	Theft and Its Prosecution	174
1	Legal Attitudes towards Theft	175
2	Prosecution and Sentencing	180
3	The Social Profile of Thieves and Economies of Makeshift	187
4	Stolen Goods	197
5	The Geographies of Theft	203
6	The Distribution of Stolen Goods	208
7	Conclusion: Judicial Paternalism and Women's Roles in Thieving	212
7	Conclusion	215
1	The Case of Bologna and Patterns of Female Crime	216
2	The Impact of Institutionalisation, Judicial Paternalism and Peacemaking Practices	219
3	Crime and Italian Women's Agency	222
4	Avenues for Future Research	223
	Appendix: Information on Samples	227
	Bibliography	229
	Index	252