

Contents

Foreword vii

ANTONIA I. CASTAÑEDA

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction: Memory, Violence, and History in the 1919 Canales Investigation 1

SONIA HERNÁNDEZ AND JOHN MORÁN GONZÁLEZ

Poem 1. Yo Soy de Frank Rabbaté 20

DIANA NOREEN RIVERA

SECTION I. La Matanza and the Canales Investigation in Context

1. Refusing to Forget: A Brief History 27
TRINIDAD GONZALES, BENJAMIN HEBER JOHNSON, AND MONICA MARTINEZ
2. Anglos, Mexicans, and Rangers in Texas, 1850–1900 49
ANDREW R. GRAYBILL
3. Texas in Four Parts: The Bordered World of 1919 69
WALTER L. BUENGER
4. La Matanza and the Canales Investigation in Comparative Perspective 92
WILLIAM D. CARRIGAN AND CLIVE WEBB
5. Representation, Refusal, and Remembrance: Lynching and Extralegal
Violence in Mexico and the United States, 1890s–1930s 103
GEMA KLOPPE-SANTAMARÍA

SECTION II. J. T. Canales, Resistance, and Resilience

6. The World of Education among Ethnic Mexicans in
J. T. Canales's South Texas 121
PHILIS M. BARRAGÁN GOETZ AND CARLOS K. BLANTON
7. Humanizing La Raza: The Activist Journalism of the Idar Family in Early Twentieth-Century Texas 143
GABRIELA GONZÁLEZ
8. José Tomás Canales and the Paradox of Power 158
RICHARD RIBB
9. J. T. Canales's Contributions in Law, Civil Rights, and Education, 1920–1976 178
CYNTHIA E. OROZCO

SECTION III. Reflections on Recovering a History of State Violence and Its Reverberations

10. Hidden History: A Journey through the Past, with Hard Lessons for the Present 211
KIRBY F. WARNOCK
11. Recovering the 1919 Canales Investigation of the Texas Ranger Force:
Archival Investigation and Its Consequences, 1975–2010 219
JAMES A. SANDOS
12. The Legacy of La Matanza, Intergenerational Trauma, and the Writing of El Rinche 229
CHRISTOPHER CARMONA
13. Stewarding the Personal Narratives of Painful History 244
MARGARET KOCH
14. Reckoning with the Past toward the Here and Now 263
KATHERINE HITE
- Poem 2. Living Witness 279
NATI ROMÁN
- Epilogue 283
JOHN PHILLIP SANTOS
- Contributors 288
- Index 295