

Contents

Theoretical Explorations

- CyberTerrorism: Some Insights from Owen's
Genetic-Social Framework 3
Tim Owen
- Vygotsky and Internet Grooming: The Darker Side of ZPD and Scaffolding 23
Kerry Hannigan
- The Criminalisation of Tools Under the Computer Misuse
Act 1990. The Need to Rethink Cybercrime Offences to Effectively Protect Legitimate Activities and Deter
Cybercriminals 41
Audrey Guinchard

A Short History of Hacktivism: Its Past and Present and What Can We Learn from It Vasileios Karagiannopoulos	63
Assuming Identities Online: How Linguistics Is Helping the Policing of Online Grooming and the Distribution of Abusive Images Nicci MacLeod and Tim Grant	87
The Need to Think Beyond Objective Territoriality to Better Protect the Rights of the Suspect of a Cybercrime Jean-Baptiste Maillart	105
Images of Violence and Atrocity in Modern Media Wayne Noble	121
Policy Implications
Can Risk Society and the Ideology of Motherhood Explain the Continued Hostility Towards the McCanns on Social Media? Jessica Louise Marshall	145
'In and Out, On and Off: LGBT+ Online Experiences' Megan Todd	169
The Internet-of-Things: A Surveillance Wonderland Tine Munk	191
Routine Activity Theory and Cybercrime Investigation in Nigeria: How Capable Are Law Enforcement Agencies? Muktar Bello and Marie Griffiths	213

Online Grooming: An Exploration into the Genetic-Social Variables Which Enable Victimisation	237
Faye Christabel Speed
Index	259