

Contents

List of figures viii

Acknowledgements x

Introduction: Re-crafting an unsettled world D Wood 1

PART 1 Craft Legacy 19

- 1 Politics of tea furniture: Invention of ryūrei style in late-nineteenth-century Japan Yasuko Suga 21
- 2 (Dis)playing politics: Craft and the Caughnawaga Exhibition, 1883 Lisa Binkley 34
- 3 Indigenous craft is political: Making and remaking colonizer–colonized relations in Taiwan Geoffrey Gowlland 51
- 4 Coexistence of craft and design in Turkey as two separate epistemes Çiğdem Kaya 65
- 5 Leisure and livelihood: A Socioeconomic reading of craft in Australia and Egypt Anne-Marie Willis 79

PART 2 Craft Practice 95

- 6 The politics of craft and working without skill: Reconsidering craftsmanship and the community of practice Alanna Cant 97
- 7 From 'making flowers' to imagining futures: Rohingya refugee women innovate a heritage craft Lurdes Macedo, David Palazón, Shahirah Majumdar and Verity Marques 109
- 8 Liminality: The work of Monica Mercedes Martinez, PJ Anderson and Habiba El-Sayed Heidi McKenzie 123
- 9 Jewellery is political: Ethical jewellery practice Elizabeth Shaw 136
- 10 Networks of economic kinship in Aotearoa New Zealand craft markets Fiona P. McDonald 148
- 11 It goes without saying: Craft talks politics D Wood 165

PART 3 Craft World View 179

- 12 Crafts as the political: Perspectives on crafts from design of the Global South Fernando A. Álvarez R. 181
- 13 Chilean arpilleras: Hand-stitched geographies and the politics of everyday life in Santiago's poblaciones Nathalia Santos Ocasio 198
- 14 From essential skill to productive capital: Perspectives on policies and practices of craft education in Finland Anna Kouhia 212

- 15 Sincerity not authenticity: Craft's political path out of a modernist trap Leopold Kowolik 225
- 16 Bellwether: Fingerprinting your woollies Seema Goel 237
- Epilogue D Wood 250
- Author biographies 253
- Index 258