

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Preface	xi
Amelia Nelson, The Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art, and Traci E. Timmons, Seattle Art Museum
Introduction: The Art of Transformation	1
Kristen Regina, Philadelphia Museum of Art
Part I. Developing, Managing, and Caring for Collections
1 Shelved Out of Sight: Library Spaces and Archives Storage in Art Museums	7
Jenna Stout, Saint Louis Art Museum
2 Cultivating Wisely: Strategies to Keep the Collection Alive and Evergreen	15
Doug Litts, The Art Institute of Chicago
3 Blood on the Walls, Blood on the Shelves: Decolonizing the Art Museum Library	23
Courtney Becks, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign
4 Haptic Aesthetics: Artists' Books in Art Museum Libraries	31
Anne Evenhaugen, Smithsonian Museum, American Art Museum and National Portrait Gallery, and Tony White, The Metropolitan Museum of Art

- 5 Ephemeral Survival: Managing Physical and Digital Artist File Collections 43
Alexandra Reigle, Smithsonian Museum, American Art Museum and National Portrait Gallery, and Simon Underschultz, National Gallery of Australia
- 6 Building Web Archive Collections in Art Museum Libraries 57
Sumitra Duncan, The Frick Collection/New York Art Resources Consortium
- 7 Preservation and Conservation for Art Museum Library Collections: Progressive Approaches and Evolving Concepts 67
Beth Morris, Independent Librarian, Preservation Specialist, Book Conservator, and Scholar

Part II. Access, Outreach, and Collaboration

- 8 Prioritizing Special Collections in the Art Museum Library 79
Lee Ceperich, Virginia Museum of Fine Arts
- 9 The Life of the (Third-) Party (System): Integrated Library Systems and Discovery Layers 89
Dan Lipcan, Peabody Essex Museum
- 10 Reconsidering the Reference Collection: Using Print Art Reference Materials as Training Tools 97
Gwen Mayhew, Canadian Centre for Architecture, and Annalise Welte, Getty Research Institute
- 11 The State and Vision of Exhibitions in Art Museum Libraries 105
Carol Ng-He, San José State University
- 12 Evolution and Revolution: New Approaches to Art Museum Library Programming 121
Janice Lea Lurie, Minneapolis Institute of Art
- 13 Local Consortia and Museum Libraries: Partnering for the Future 129
Alba Fernandez-Keys, Indianapolis Museum of Art at Newfields

Part III. Personnel in the Art Museum Library

- 14 Entering the Field: Resources for Aspiring Art Museum Librarians 137
Lauren Gottlieb-Miller, The Menil Collection
- 15 Demonstrating the Value of the Art Museum Library through Strategic Volunteer and Intern Management 145
Traci E. Timmons, Seattle Art Museum

Part IV. Digital Landscapes in the New Art Museum Library

16	Digital Art History and the Art Museum Library Stephen J. Bury, The Frick Collection	155
17	The Changing Ecologies of Museum Metadata Systems Jonathan Lill, Museum of Modern Art	161
18	Digitization and Digital Repositories Bryan Ricupero, University of Wyoming, and Sophie Jo Miller, University of Wyoming	169
19	The Rise of Wikimedia in GLAM Institutions Sarah Osborne Bender, National Gallery of Art, and Carissa Pfeiffer, Black Mountain College Museum + Arts Center	179
20	Getting a Seat at the Table: Art Museum Libraries as Open Access Stakeholders Heather Saunders, The Cleveland Museum of Art	189
	Index	199
	About the Editors and the Contributors	211