

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	vii
Foreword by Shailaja Paik	xi
Preface by S. Japhet	xix
List of Abbreviations	xxvii
Introduction by Aakash Singh Rathore	xxxii

PART ONE: GENDER JUSTICE

1. Double Disadvantage of Sanitation Workers and Government Responses SANGHMITRA S. ACHARYA	3
2. The Shame of India: Stigma and Shame among Dalit Women in Rural Agricultural Relations MUSHTAQ AHMAD MALLA	40
3. Gender Equality and Women's Empowerment: Ambedkar in Contemporary Context RAJESH RAUSHAN	69
4. Ambedkar as a Feminist Philosopher SUNAINA ARYA	91
5. Ambedkar on Women's Empowerment and the Status of Dalit Women in Karnataka MALA MUKHERJEE	116

6. Constructing a New Female Subjectivity: Ambedkar's Perspective KOMAL RAJAK AND N. SUKUMAR	137
PART TWO: RACIAL JUSTICE
7. Organic Resistance: The Relevance of Ambedkar, Du Bois, and Garvey to Diaspora, Caste, Race, and Women's Liberation MOSES SEENARINE	157
8. Racelessness and Ambedkar's Idea of Annihilation: Post-apartheid South Africa GOOLAM VAHED AND ASHWIN DESAI	184
9. Common Struggles? Why There Has Not Been More Cooperation between African-Americans and Dalits KEVIN BROWN AND LALIT KHANDARE	205
10. Can Ambedkar Speak to Africa? Colour, Caste, and Class Struggles in Contemporary South Africa GOOLAM VAHED	230
Index	248
Editor and Contributors	256