

Contents

List of Illustrations	IX
Notes on Contributors	X

Introduction: Out from a Shadow	1
Lahney Preston-Matto and Mary A. Valante

PART 1

Children in Medieval Religion

- 1 The Disrobing Child in the Entry into Jerusalem Scene:
An Element of Realism or Symbolism in Byzantine Art? 11
Sophia Germanidou
- 2 Boy Becoming Man: Liturgical Inversion in the Boy Bishop Ceremony in Medieval England 26
Gavin Fort
- 3 Apocryphal Youth: The Childhood of the Irish Saint 47
Máire Johnson
- 4 Minors and the Miraculous: The Cure-Seeking Experiences of Children in Twelfth-Century English Hagiography 59
Ruth J. Salter
- 5 The Infirm Child between Parental Worry and Divine Powers 87
Jenni Kuuliala

PART 2

Children in Medieval Law and Justice

- 6 "I Would Like to Make It Up to You by Fostering Your Son":
Fosterage and Fixing Relations in Medieval Iceland 109
Lahney Preston-Matto
- 7 Childhood in the Common Law Courts of Medieval Ireland 127
Bridgette Slavin

- 8 Puerile Justice: The Voice of a Boy in Jack and His Stepdame 149
Melissa Raine

- 9 Foreign Guardianship and the Networked Child in Medieval English Romance 171
Paul A. Broyles

PART 3

Vulnerable Children

- 10 The Loss of Innocence: Childhood and Transition to Adulthood
 in the Mortuary Practices of the Early Viking Age 197
Sarah Croix
- 11 It Takes a Village: Community Responses to Child Death in High and Late Medieval England 228
Danielle Griego
- 12 Havelok's Sisters: Vulnerability and the Child Body 247
Eve Salisbury
- 13 Patriarchy, Violence and Sacrifice in the Middle English Slaughter of the Innocents Plays 267
Daniel T. Kline
- 14 Abandoned, Overworked, Abused: The Dark Side of Childhoods
 in Early Medieval Ireland 309
Mary A. Valante

Bibliography 323

Suggested Additional Reading 349

Index 357