

Contents

- List of illustrations vii
Acknowledgements ix
Notes on contributors x

- 1 From generation to generation: World War II narratives in transition 1
Róisín Healy and Gearóid Barry

PART ONE Lives in uniform: Enduring combat and captivity 23

- 2 Nothing spectacular to remember? Dealing with wartime memories in a German family 25
Hans-Walter Schmidt-Hannisa
- 3 The returning POW and a wartime volunteer: A love story 37
Sheena Fennell and Gill Fennell
- 4 Educating friends and enemies: An Irishman's experiences in wartime Britain 51
Patricia Scully
- 5 The diary of an Italian officer in Nazi concentration camps, 1943–5: The forgotten history of Italian Military Internees 65
Marina Ansaldo
- 6 Behind enemy lines: The story of an American soldier and the Italian family who saved him 79
Colleen Maloney Williamson and Maureen Maloney

- 7 From El Alamein to Bergen-Belsen: An Irish dental officer's war 93
Ciara Boylan
- 8 Recording the war in Connemara: A Guianese sailor in the eastern Mediterranean 109
Cormac Ó Loideáin

PART TWO Lives under siege: Coping with occupation 117

- 9 A Spanish communist in the French Resistance: Uncle Luís and a German map 119
Sara Farrona
- 10 A boy in small-town Germany from home front to Allied occupation 133
Hermann Rasche
- 11 A child's view of war: Nazi occupation, Resistance and civil war in north-eastern Italy, 1943–5 145
Enrico Dal Lago
- 12 A Greek tragedy: A small village at war 161
Constantinos G. Efthymiou
- 13 A Russian Jewish family remembers the Siege of Leningrad 171
Irina Rupp
- 14 Slave labour and its legacies: My maternal grandparents' journey from Ukraine to Germany to Belgium 185
Sylvie Mossay