Contents

Notes on Transliteration and References xiii	Acknowledgments Abbreviations Notes on Transliteration and References Map		vii
Introduction 1 Plan of this book 9 Conversations and contributions 13 Key terms and clarifications 14 Bhakti 14 Caste 16 Dalit 18 Names of God 19 Saint 20 Commensality 20 Commensality 20 Uses of theory 21  PART I  1. Religion and Social Change: Narratives of Outrage and Disappointment 25 Religion through the lenses of history and social science 26 Conceiving equality 32 Religion and equality 32 Religion and equality 32 Sightings of Bhakti and Its Social Impact 47 Re-envisioning bhakti studies from western India 48 What did bhakti do? Democracy, inclusion, and equality 60 3. Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950 67 Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse 69 Liberal intellectuals 70 Nationalists and literary scholars 75 Gāthā editors and Vārkarī leaders 78 Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians 82			xiii
Introduction 1 Plan of this book 9 Conversations and contributions 13 Key terms and clarifications 14 Bhakti 14 Caste 16 Dalit 18 Names of God 19 Saint 20 Commensality 20 Uses of theory 21  PART I  1. Religion and Social Change: Narratives of Outrage and Disappointment 25 Religion through the lenses of history and social science 26 Conceiving equality 32 Religion and equality 37 My approach 22  2. Sightings of Bhakti and Its Social Impact 47 Re-envisioning bhakti studies from western India 48 What did bhakti do? 54 Democracy, inclusion, and equality 60 3. Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950 67 Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse 69 Liberal intellectuals 70 Nationalists and literary scholars 75 Gāthā editors and Vārkarī leaders 78 Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians 82
Plan of this book Conversations and contributions I3 Key terms and clarifications I4 Bhakti Caste Dalit Names of God Saint Commensality Uses of theory I2 PART I  1. Religion and Social Change: Narratives of Outrage and Disappointment Religion through the lenses of history and social science Conceiving equality Religion and equality My approach  2. Sightings of Bhakti and Its Social Impact Re-envisioning bhakti studies from western India What did bhakti do? Democracy, inclusion, and equality  3. Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950 Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse Liberal intellectuals Nationalists and literary scholars Gāthā editors and Vārkarī leaders Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians
Conversations and contributions  Key terms and clarifications  Bhakti  Caste Dalit Names of God Saint Commensality Uses of theory  PART I  1. Religion and Social Change: Narratives of Outrage and Disappointment Religion through the lenses of history and social science Conceiving equality Religion and equality My approach  2. Sightings of Bhakti and Its Social Impact Re-envisioning bhakti studies from western India What did bhakti do? Democracy, inclusion, and equality  3. Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950 Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse Liberal intellectuals Nationalists and literary scholars Gāthā editors and Vārkarī leaders Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians	In	troduction	1
Key terms and clarifications  Bhakti  Caste  Dalit  Names of God  Saint  Commensality  Uses of theory  PART I  1. Religion and Social Change: Narratives of Outrage and  Disappointment  Religion through the lenses of history and social science  Conceiving equality  Religion and equality  My approach  2. Sightings of Bhakti and Its Social Impact  Re-envisioning bhakti studies from western India  What did bhakti do?  Democracy, inclusion, and equality  3. Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950  Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse  Liberal intellectuals  Nationalists and literary scholars  Gāthā editors and Vārkarī leaders  Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians		Plan of this book	9
Bhakti Caste Dalit Names of God Saint Commensality Uses of theory  PART I  1. Religion and Social Change: Narratives of Outrage and Disappointment Peligion through the lenses of history and social science Conceiving equality Religion and equality My approach  2. Sightings of Bhakti and Its Social Impact Re-envisioning bhakti studies from western India What did bhakti do? Democracy, inclusion, and equality  3. Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950 Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse Liberal intellectuals Nationalists and literary scholars Gāthā editors and Vārkarī leaders Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians		Conversations and contributions	13
Caste Dalit Names of God Saint Commensality Uses of theory  PART I  1. Religion and Social Change: Narratives of Outrage and Disappointment Religion through the lenses of history and social science Conceiving equality Religion and equality Religion and equality 32 Religion and equality 33 Religion and equality 34 My approach 45 2 Sightings of Bhakti and Its Social Impact Re-envisioning bhakti studies from western India What did bhakti do? Democracy, inclusion, and equality 3 Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950 4 Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse Liberal intellectuals Nationalists and literary scholars Gāthā editors and Vārkarī leaders Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians		Key terms and clarifications	14
Dalit Names of God Saint Commensality Uses of theory  PART I  PART I  Religion and Social Change: Narratives of Outrage and Disappointment Religion through the lenses of history and social science Conceiving equality Religion and equality Religion and equality 37 My approach  Sightings of Bhakti and Its Social Impact Re-envisioning bhakti studies from western India What did bhakti do? Democracy, inclusion, and equality  Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950 Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse Liberal intellectuals Nationalists and literary scholars Gäthā editors and Vārkarī leaders Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians		Bhakti	14
Names of God Saint Commensality Uses of theory  PART I  PART I  Religion and Social Change: Narratives of Outrage and Disappointment Pagingion through the lenses of history and social science Conceiving equality Religion and equality Religion and equality My approach  Sightings of Bhakti and Its Social Impact Re-envisioning bhakti studies from western India What did bhakti do? Democracy, inclusion, and equality  Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950 Cocating bhakti in Marathi print discourse Liberal intellectuals Nationalists and literary scholars Găthă editors and Vărkarī leaders Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians		Caste	16
Saint 20 Commensality 20 Uses of theory 21  PART I  1. Religion and Social Change: Narratives of Outrage and Disappointment 25 Religion through the lenses of history and social science 26 Conceiving equality 32 Religion and equality 37 My approach 42  2. Sightings of Bhakti and Its Social Impact 47 Re-envisioning bhakti studies from western India 48 What did bhakti do? 54 Democracy, inclusion, and equality 60  3. Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950 67 Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse 69 Liberal intellectuals 70 Nationalists and literary scholars 75 Gāthā editors and Vārkarī leaders 78 Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians 82		Dalit	18
Commensality 20 Uses of theory 21  PART I  1. Religion and Social Change: Narratives of Outrage and Disappointment 25 Religion through the lenses of history and social science 26 Conceiving equality 32 Religion and equality 37 My approach 42  2. Sightings of Bhakti and Its Social Impact 47 Re-envisioning bhakti studies from western India 48 What did bhakti do? 54 Democracy, inclusion, and equality 60  3. Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950 67 Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse 69 Liberal intellectuals 70 Nationalists and literary scholars 75 Gāthā editors and Vārkarī leaders 78 Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians 82		Names of God	19
PART I  1. Religion and Social Change: Narratives of Outrage and Disappointment 25 Religion through the lenses of history and social science 26 Conceiving equality 32 Religion and equality 37 My approach 42  2. Sightings of Bhakti and Its Social Impact 47 Re-envisioning bhakti studies from western India 48 What did bhakti do? 54 Democracy, inclusion, and equality 60  3. Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950 67 Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse 69 Liberal intellectuals 70 Nationalists and literary scholars 75 Gāthā editors and Vārkarī leaders 78 Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians 82		Saint	20
PART I  1. Religion and Social Change: Narratives of Outrage and Disappointment 25 Religion through the lenses of history and social science 26 Conceiving equality 32 Religion and equality 37 My approach 42  2. Sightings of Bhakti and Its Social Impact 47 Re-envisioning bhakti studies from western India 48 What did bhakti do? 54 Democracy, inclusion, and equality 60  3. Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950 67 Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse 69 Liberal intellectuals 70 Nationalists and literary scholars 75 Gāthā editors and Vārkarī leaders 78 Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians 82		Commensality
1. Religion and Social Change: Narratives of Outrage and Disappointment 25 Religion through the lenses of history and social science 26 Conceiving equality 32 Religion and equality 37 My approach 42 2. Sightings of Bhakti and Its Social Impact 47 Re-envisioning bhakti studies from western India 48 What did bhakti do? 54 Democracy, inclusion, and equality 60 3. Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950 67 Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse 69 Liberal intellectuals 70 Nationalists and literary scholars 75 Gäthä editors and Värkarī leaders 78 Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians 82		Uses of theory	21
Disappointment 25 Religion through the lenses of history and social science 26 Conceiving equality 32 Religion and equality 37 My approach 42  2. Sightings of Bhakti and Its Social Impact 47 Re-envisioning bhakti studies from western India 48 What did bhakti do? 54 Democracy, inclusion, and equality 60  3. Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950 67 Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse 69 Liberal intellectuals 70 Nationalists and literary scholars 75 Gäthä editors and Värkarī leaders 78 Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians 82		PART I
Religion through the lenses of history and social science Conceiving equality Religion and equality My approach  2. Sightings of Bhakti and Its Social Impact Re-envisioning bhakti studies from western India What did bhakti do? Democracy, inclusion, and equality  3. Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950 Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse Liberal intellectuals Nationalists and literary scholars Gäthä editors and Värkarī leaders Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians	1.	Religion and Social Change: Narratives of Outrage and
Conceiving equality Religion and equality My approach  2. Sightings of Bhakti and Its Social Impact Re-envisioning bhakti studies from western India What did bhakti do? Democracy, inclusion, and equality  3. Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950 Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse Liberal intellectuals Nationalists and literary scholars Gāthā editors and Vārkarī leaders Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians  3. Secondary of the secondary of th		Disappointment	25
Religion and equality My approach  2. Sightings of Bhakti and Its Social Impact Re-envisioning bhakti studies from western India What did bhakti do? Democracy, inclusion, and equality  3. Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950 Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse Liberal intellectuals Nationalists and literary scholars Gäthä editors and Värkarī leaders Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians  2. Sightings of Bhakti and Its Social Impact 4. 47 4. 48 4. 48 4. 49 4. 49 4. 49 4. 40 4. 40 4. 41 4. 41 4. 42 4. 47 4. 48 4.		Religion through the lenses of history and social science	26
My approach  2. Sightings of Bhakti and Its Social Impact Re-envisioning bhakti studies from western India What did bhakti do? Democracy, inclusion, and equality  3. Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950 Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse Liberal intellectuals Nationalists and literary scholars Gäthä editors and Värkarī leaders Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians  42  43  44  45  46  47  48  48  48  48  48  48  49  49  49  40  40  40  41  48  48  48  48  48  48  48  49  49  40  40  40  40  40  40  40  40		Conceiving equality	32
2. Sightings of Bhakti and Its Social Impact Re-envisioning bhakti studies from western India What did bhakti do? 54 Democracy, inclusion, and equality 60 3. Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950 Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse 69 Liberal intellectuals 70 Nationalists and literary scholars 75 Gäthä editors and Värkarī leaders Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians 82		Religion and equality	37
Re-envisioning bhakti studies from western India What did bhakti do? Democracy, inclusion, and equality  Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950 Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse Liberal intellectuals Nationalists and literary scholars Gāthā editors and Vārkarī leaders Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians  48  48  48  48  48  48  48  48  60  67  67  67  68  69  Liberal intellectuals 70  75  75  75  75  75  75  75  78  80  81		My approach	42
Re-envisioning bhakti studies from western India What did bhakti do? Democracy, inclusion, and equality  Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950 Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse Liberal intellectuals Nationalists and literary scholars Gāthā editors and Vārkarī leaders Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians  48  48  48  48  48  48  48  48  60  67  67  67  68  69  Liberal intellectuals 70  75  75  75  75  75  75  75  78  80  81	2.	Sightings of Bhakti and Its Social Impact	47
What did bhakti do? Democracy, inclusion, and equality  3. Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950 47 Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse 69 Liberal intellectuals 70 Nationalists and literary scholars 75 Gāthā editors and Vārkarī leaders 82 Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians 82		v v
Democracy, inclusion, and equality 60  3. Bhakti and Equality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950 67  Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse 69  Liberal intellectuals 70  Nationalists and literary scholars 75  Gāthā editors and Vārkarī leaders 78  Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians 82
Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse 69 Liberal intellectuals 70 Nationalists and literary scholars 75 Gāthā editors and Vārkarī leaders 78 Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians 82			60
Locating bhakti in Marathi print discourse 69 Liberal intellectuals 70 Nationalists and literary scholars 75 Gāthā editors and Vārkarī leaders 78 Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians 82	3.	Rhakti and Fauality in Marathi Print, 1854–1950	67
Liberal intellectuals 70 Nationalists and literary scholars 75 Gāthā editors and Vārkarī leaders 78 Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians 82	٠.
Nationalists and literary scholars75Gåthå editors and Värkarī leaders78Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians82		•
Gäthä editors and Värkarī leaders 78 Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians 82
Subaltern critics, rationalists, and Marxist historians 82		•
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	90

PART II

4.	The Complications of Eating Together	103
	Studies of commensality	106
	Food and commensality in South Asia	107
	Hindu gastrosemantics	109
	Vedāngas and dharmasāstra	112
	Epics and Puranas	115
	Food in vernacular bhakti literature	119
	Conclusion	125
5.	Memories of Transgressive Commensality	129
	The sources	130
	Food as signifier of extreme bhakti	132
	Compassionate hospitality	136
	Food in Eknäth's encounter with Dattatreya	138
	The śrāddha story	142
	The double vision story	150
•	Conclusion	159
6.	Restaging Transgressive Commensality	163
	Early biographical scholarship, 1860-1931	164
	Eknāth in theater and film, 1903-2005	167
	Śrī Eknāth (1903)—V. R. Sirvaļkar	168
	Kharā Brāmhaṇ (1933)—K. S. Thackeray	172
	Dharmātmā (1935)—Prabhāt Film Company	175
	Bhāva Toci Dev (1965)—G. G. Sirgopîkar	182
	Sant Eknäth Mahārāj (2004) and Sant Eknāth (2005)	186
	Conclusion	189
7.	Bhakti in the Shadow of Ambedkar	193
	Bhakti as resonant manifold	194
	Ideology of inclusive difference	198
	Nondualist social ethics?	208
	Ambedkar and bhakti	211
	Historical imagination, hagiography, and food	213
	Conclusion	221
Notes		229
Bibliography		275
Index		301