

Contents

Acknowledgments IX

List of Illustrations XI

- 1 Introduction: Understanding Miracles, Compassion, and Disability 1
 - 1.1 Chapter Overview and Organization of the Material 5
 - 1.2 Early Modern Disability and Terms Used in This Book 8
 - 1.3 Biblical Healing Miracles and the Understanding of Charity before the Renaissance 12

- 2 Christus Medicus and Beyond: The Thaumaturgic Power of Christ and Medical Metaphors in the Premodern Netherlands 21
 - 2.1 Christus Medicus and Its Origins: An Overview of the Topos 22
 - 2.2 Christ the Physician and Bodily Health in Hendrick Goltzius's Miracula Christi 27
 - 2.3 Regulating the Medical Profession in the Netherlands: Goltzius, Guilds, and the Question of Status 40
 - 2.4 Physician as Christ or Charlatan? Quacksalvers in Pamphlets, Theatrical Plays, and Visual Arts 55
 - 2.5 Christ the Physician – Healer of the Netherlands 62

- 3 "I was sick and you visited me": Medical Assistance and the Seven Works of Mercy 68
 - 3.1 Visiting the Sick as a Spiritual and Corporal Work of Mercy 71
 - 3.2 Visiting the Sick and the Iconography of the Seven Works of Mercy in the Seventeenth Century 89
 - 3.3 Charity in Late-Sixteenth- and Seventeenth-Century Sermons 97
 - 3.4 Display of Images of the Seven Works of Mercy and Decoration of Netherlandish Gasthuizen 101

- 4 Healing the Blind: Images of Visual Impairment in the Early Modern Low Countries 108
 - 4.1 Blindness in the Early Modern Netherlands 115
 - 4.2 "Thy faith hath made thee whole": Touch and Word in Healing Miracles 135
 - 4.3 "That the works of God should be made manifest in him": Agency in the Images of Healing the Blind 147
 - 4.4 Landscape, Guides, and Dogs: Iconographic Staffage of Healing Miracles 152

- 5 Healing the Lame: Biblical Miracles and Mobility Impairment in the Early Modern Netherlands 162
 - 5.1 Bethesda, Healing Waters, and the Cessation of Miracles in Early Modern Europe 165
 - 5.2 Droochsloot's Sources and Anti-Beggar Sentiments in the Netherlands 175
 - 5.3 "Sir, I have no man": Healing of the Paralytic as a Model of Mercy 187
 - 5.4 Authority and Mercy in the Healings in the Acts of the Apostles 204

- 6 Healing the Multitudes: Miraculous Healing beyond Visual and Motor Impairments 210
 - 6.1 The Healing of the Deaf: Hearing as an Instrument of Faith 211
 - 6.2 Invisible Miracles and Healing beyond the Jewish Community 217
 - 6.3 Healing the Lepers and Leprosy in the Premodern Netherlands 229

- 7 Epilogue, or Who Is Worthy of Healing and Why It Matters 241

- Bibliography 247
- Index 263