

Contents

Acknowledgments	12
Abbreviations	16
Maps, Plans, and Tables	18
Introduction: 1769/2019	25
Chapter One: Recovering the Romanesque Monastery	37
The Monastery Today	38
Reversing Time's Arrow at the Church of Sant'Elia	49
The Late Nineteenth through Twenty-First Centuries: Stewardship of a "Medieval" Church	49
Nineteenth-Century Medievalism: Virginio Vespignani, Pius IX, and an Ideal Christian Architecture	50
Architecture: The Nave Colonnades, Side Aisles, and Side Portals	58
The Church Interior	65
A Church Preserved	66

Detail of Fig. 2-7. Interior, transept, Sant'Elia. View from northwest corner toward southeast, showing frescoes and altars in apse and in south transept. Photo: Author, 2017.

Preservation and Modification in the Postmonastic Era, 1256–1855	68
Architecture: The Nave Colonnades, Side Aisles, and Facade	68
The Church Interior	71
The Crypt and Sacristy	80
The Chapel of San Michele Arcangelo	81
Genesis, Circa 1125	82
The Nave: Colonnades, Clerestory Walls, and Side Aisles	82
The Transept and Apse	83
The Facade	87
The Pavement and Furnishings	89
The Frescoes	89
The Crypt and Sacristy	90
The Monastic Precinct, Including San Michele Arcangelo	90
The Twelfth-Century Corpus	91
Conclusion	95
Chapter Two: vetustum monasterium Sancti Heliae	96
A Sacred Landscape	98
The Physical Setting	98
The Chapel of San Michele Arcangelo	101
Remembering Abbots Past	104
Painting, Sound, and Ritual at the Altar of Anastasius	105
Bovo and Anastasius: Recollections Explicit and Implicit	117
From Temple to Church, or, Building Like Benedict	122
Conclusion	129

Chapter Three: The Materiality of Memory	130
Representation versus Materiality	134
The Crypt as locus antiquior	138
Past and Present: The Facade Portals	147
Structure and Organization	148
The Ninth-Century Cross	152
Stefanus and the Two Gregories	155
Promoting Cult, Protecting Community	157
The Distribution of Imagery	159
Violence and Salvation	160
Of Lions and Interlace	163
Conclusion	168
Chapter Four: The Monk as the New Elijah	172
In the Name of Elijah	177
Elijah: A Biography	177
noster princeps Helias	180
In the Image of Elijah	185
The Ascent of Elijah	186
Elijah in Paradise	191
Prophets as Models	194
Monitory Prophets	198
From exercitus Domini to milites Christi	202

At the Altar of Elijah	206
The Sons of Jacob	206
The Altar of Elijah's Righteousness	211
Conclusion	216
Chapter Five: Seeing Apocalypse at Sant'Elia	218
Painting the Apocalypse	221
A Narrative Disrupted	227
A Narrative Restored	247
John the Revelator	257
Conclusion	264
Chapter Six: Why the Apocalypse?	266
Exegetical Images	269
Integrating Apocalypse at Sant'Elia	271
The Apocalypse in Medieval Textual Exegesis	276
Interpreting Apocalypse at Sant'Elia	280
The Politics of Apocalypse	290
Discipline and Reform	292
Warfare Spiritual and Physical	294
A Church in Peril	297
Conclusion	299

Chapter Seven: A Papal Church in Lazio	302
A Basilica Reformed	304
A Roman Church	304
fratres pictores romani	310
The Images around the Altar	316
Of Peter and Paul	321
isti sunt agni novelli	326
The Virgin in the Apse	331
A Multivocal Program	339
Establishing the Papal Perimeter	340
Conclusion	343
 Conclusion: Bovo famulus tuus	 346
Notes	354
Bibliography	393
List of Illustrations	416
General Index	421
Manuscripts and Archival Sources Cited	431