

CONTENTS

Preface	9
1. India's perennial vision	13
2. Foundation of the International Academy of Indian Culture	28
3. Vedic, Epic and Buddhist studies	45
4. Taxila in the making	56
5. Indianization of scientific terms	68
6. Sanskrit literature is a legacy of the world	82
7. Israel was born in a vision	90
8. Sanskrit studies in the Netherlands	101
9. Understanding the aspirations of India	120
10. Rejuvenation of Buddhist values in Myanmar	125
11. Spanning two millennia of the literatures of Asia (Śatapiṭaka)	154
12. National language, Vedic studies and Śatapiṭaka	162
13. Gilgit manuscripts	181
14. Indology in Germany	185
15. Indian studies in the Czech Republic	230
16. Our Indic studies in the 1960s	246
17. Indology in Romania	270
18. Trans-Indic studies	273
19. Voyage to Bali in ancient galleons	283
20. Researches in the decade 1971–1980	305
21. India and Bulgaria	353
22. Ambiences of Sanskrit culture	396
23. Seeking the tides of culture (1980s)	444
24. India of the Imagination	500
25. India and Poland	521
26. New winds blowing (1986–1990)	533
27. Exploring Indic culture (1991–2000)	567
28. Across the veins of time (2001–2010)	634
29. Sparkling Buddhist centuries (2011–2017)	674
Index	697