

Contents

Prologue	(iii)
1. Animal Science in the Purāṇas	1
2. Arms and Armours in Kautilya's Arthaśāstra : Perspective of Plant and Animal Origin	13
3. Management of Animal Wealth as Depicted in Kautilya's Arthaśāstra	22
4. Linkage of Vedic Lore with Prevalent Medicinal plants of Assam : A Religious and Cultural Observation	33
5. Ethno-Botanical Study of Plant Science in the Vedic Literature and its Modern Relevance	42
6. Environmental Awareness in the Age of the Mahābhārata and its Relevance in the Twenty first Century	55
7. Effect of Seasons on Plant and Animal Life as Depicted in Kālidāsa's works	62
8. Perfumes and Ornaments of Plant and Animal Origin as Beautifiers that contained in Sanskrit Literature	74
9. Purāṇic Information on Ethno-Botany and its Social Impact	87
10. The Concept of Plant Science in Ancient Indian Literature	97

11.	Studies on Plant Science as Revealed in Sanskrit Literature and its Relevance in the Twenty First Century	104
12.	Conservation of Environment in Ancient India and its Relevance in Present Age	111
13.	Plants in the Purāṇas : An Environmental Approach	117
14.	Toxicology in the Purāṇas : Historical Perspective of Āyurveda	126
15.	Hydrotherapy in the Vedas	134
16.	Veterinary Science in the Purāṇas	143
17.	A Study of Ornaments in Sanskrit literature	149
18.	Reflections of the Purāṇic Elephant Lore in the Hastividyaṛṇava of Assam	157