

Contents

List of Tables and Figures	vii
Contributor	viii
Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction	xv

PART I

Mindfulness, Culture and Identity

- | | |
|---|----|
| 1 Beyond Aloha: Can University of Hawai'i Students Cultivate Native Hawaiian Relational Awareness in a Mindfulness Course? | 1 |
| THAO N. LE AND TENAYA JACKMAN | |
| 2 "Making Room for Our Voices": Intersectionality as a Guide for Centering African American Women in Culturally Responsive Mind-Body Interventions | 3 |
| NATALIE N. WATSON-SINGLETON AND ANGELA R. BLACK | |
| 3 Mindfulness, Culture, and Clinical Practice: Clinician Experiences Utilizing Mindfulness and Acceptance with Hispanic/Latinx Populations | 18 |
| REBECA CASTELLANOS AND KATE FLORY | |
| 4 Application of Secular Mindfulness to Asian Americans in the U.S.: Cultural Considerations | 40 |
| AKIHIKO MASUDA AND JOANNE QINA'AU | |

PART II

Mindfulness and Ethnoracial Stress 83

- 5 The Effect of a Mindfulness Induction on Coping Strategy Preferences across Stressor Types among African Americans 85

VERONICA Y. WOMACK AND LLOYD R. SLOAN

- 6 Mindfulness and Matter: The Black Lives Matter Meditation for Healing Racial Trauma 98

CANDICE HARGONS

- 7 Exploring the Adaptation of Mindfulness Interventions to Address Stress and Health in Native American Communities 110

JEFFREY PROULX AND DESSA BERGEN-CICO

PART III

Mindfulness, Equity and Liberation 125

- 8 Practicing Mindfulness at the Intersection of Oppressions: On the Politics of Nonduality and Liberation 127

CRYSTAL M. FLEMING

- 9 Mindfulness for the People: Radically Re-Imagining the Mindfulness Movement 140

ANGELA ROSE BLACK AND SUZ SWITZER

- 10 Mindfulness Training for Healthcare Providers and Healthcare Systems: A Strategy to Increase Culturally Sensitive Care and the Promotion of Health Equity among Racially and Ethnically Diverse Populations 153

CHERYL L. WOODS-GISCOMBE AND KESSONGA K. GISCOMBE