

Contents

Preface	ix
Jussi Rautsi
Acknowledgement	xiii
Introduction	1
1 Writings of Alvar Aalto	5
Landscape	5
Biology and nature	9
Garden and architecture	16
2 The origin of Aalto's landscape concept	22
The Finnish national landscape	22
Light and shadow in Alvar Aalto's architecture	22
The garden art as part of landscape	25
The holistic approach in Aalto's architecture	26
Riihitie House, 1935–36, Helsinki	28
The garden city movement	31
Sunila pulp mill and housing area, 1936–37	32
The re-evaluated landscape	35
The shifting contours in Aalto's architecture	37
Muurame Church, 1926–29	38
The room in between	39
Muuratsalo experimental house, 1952–54	41
Towards a modern landscape	43
Paimio Sanatorium, 1928–29, 1930–32	46
The forerunners of Nordic landscape architecture, the contemporaries of Aalto	47
Garden designers consulting Aalto	49
The Japanese reconstructed landscape	51
Authenticity of materials and forms in Aalto's architecture	53

- Villa Mairea 1938–39, Noormarkku 55
- The Mediterranean landscape* 55
- Studio Aalto, 1954–55, 1962–63 58
- The constructed landscape of Aalto 60
- Jyväskylä University, 1951, 1952–55 / 1962–69 / 1969–76 62
- A sidetrack to the orient* 65
- National Pensions Institute, 1953–57 67
- The United States – genius loci and the raised importance of spatial planning* 69
- Spatial plans and green networks* 70
- Oulu River Rapids Centre, 1942 74
- 3 Alvar Aalto – the influences of the visual arts 84
- The modern art in Aalto's time* 84
- Gesamtkunstwerk 86
- The role of sketching 91
- Suomussalmi war memorial, 1959 91
- Salpausselkä relief, 1966 93
- Shaping the terrain as an attribute in Aalto's architecture 94
- Säynätsalo Town Hall, 1949–52 98
- Towards 'Monumental Art' 98
- Seinäjoki City Centre 103
- 4 Case studies 109
- Master plan of Imatra and regional plan of Rovaniemi – green flexibility* 109
- Imatra 1947–53 109
- Rovaniemi urban plan, 1944–45; the regional plan of Lapland, 1951–57; the plan of Rovaniemi city centre, 1961–76 112
- Two sides of urbanism – Helsinki City Centre and satellite centre Stensvik* 116
- Helsinki City Centre, 1959–64, 1972; Finlandia Hall, 1961–68, 69–71 116
- Stensvik urban plan, 1962, 1964–70 120
- Kiruna and Alajärvi – two town halls making the best out of the landscape* 124
- Kiruna Town Hall, 1958 124
- Alajärvi Town Hall 1966–69; Town hall, 1967; Health Care Centre, 1968; Parish Hall, 1970; Library, 1991 126
- Cultural projects – Nordic House and Shiraz Art Museum* 128
- Nordic House, 1963–68 128
- Shiraz Art Museum, 1969–70 130

Churches as landmarks in Riola di Vergato and in Lahti 135

Riola di Vergato 135

Lahti Church of the Cross, 1950, 1969–78 140

Maison Carré and Villa Kokkonen – private houses on the slope 145

Maison Louis Carré 1956–63 145

Villa Kokkonen, 1967–69 150

5 Architecture in the Landscape of Central Finland 160

6 Chronology 163

Conclusions 174

Landscape features 174

Variables for creating the landscape 177

Index 183