

Contents

Preface
Anvita Abbi	ix
Acknowledgements	xii
Introduction: Unbound, bound and rebound	xiii
Prem Kumari Srivastava

Part 1: Setting up the Perspective

Culture, Language and Tribe
Mrinal Miri	1
Impact of Globalisation on Oral Tribal Traditions
Mahendra Kumar Mishra	12
Tribal Orature: Some Notes on the Trajectory of Globalising Determinants
Samuel Dani	23

Part 2: Cultural and Literary Landscapes

Oral Tradition and Indigenous Knowledge Systems: the Case of the Baigas of Central India
T.V. Kattimani	34
Assessing the Politics of Subaltern Empowerment through Mahasweta Devi
Somdatta Mandal	57

Realisation, Resurgence and Reinforcement of the Traditions of the Indigenous People in Andaman and Nicobar Islands
S.A. Awaradi	69
Literature and Tribal Issues (special focus on Mahasweta Devi and Ravi Kumar Gond)
Yogesh Kumar Dubey	95
Symbolic Significance of Baiga Tattoos
Manash Pratim Goswami	108
Part 3: Language Ecologies
Language and Resource Regulation in the Nicobar Islands
Manish Chandi and Rohan Arthur	121
Gorboli and the Impact of Globalisation
N. Shantha Naik	138
Language Ecology and Linguistic Landscapes: Languages from India's Northeast
Anish Koshy	147
Mother Tongue Attrition in Mullu Kurumba of the Nilgiris: Effects of Modernisation and Environmental Degradation
Jayakrishnan. R	163
Contributors	182