

Contents

List of Illustrations (viii)

Acknowledgments (x)

Introductory Essays

Surrealism as Radicalism (2)

ABIGAIL SUSIK AND ELLIOTT H. KING

Surrealism and Revolutionary
Romanticism in May '68 (20)

MICHAEL LÖWY

Part 1: Surrealist Solidarity

1. "Down with Art, Up with Revolution": Protesting Dada
and Surrealism in 1968 (30)

SANDRA ZALMAN

3. Angry, Hopeful Chaos and the Great
Secret of Surrealism: Unraveling
the Tangled Web of the 1970s (61)

PENELOPE ROSEMONT

2. Ted Joans, the Other Jones: Jazz
Poet, Black Power Missionary, and Surrealist Interpreter (43)

GRÉGORY PIERROT

Part 2: Against the Liquidators

4. Passionate Attraction:
Fourier, Feminism, Free Love,
and L'Écart absolu (76)

CLAIRE HOWARD

6. A Consciousness of Being:
Burn, Baby, Burn and the Political
Art of Roberto Matta (114)

ALYCE MAHON

5. "To Be a Painter Means to Oppose":
Exhibiting and Politicizing Robert
Rauschenberg, 1959–1965 (92)

GAVIN PARKINSON

Part 3: The Right to Insubordination

7. The Fantasy of a Powerful Myth:
The Situationist International
After Surrealism (128)

MIKKEL BOLT RASMUSSEN

8. Afrosurrealism as a Counterculture of Modernity (142)

JONATHAN P. EBURNE

9. The Surrealist Adventure
and the Poetry of Direct Action:
Passionate Encounters Between the Chicago Surrealist Group, the Wobblies, and Earth First! (156)

RON SAKOLSKY

Part 4: Passional Attractions

10. A Useful Bile: André Breton's
Humour Noir in 1960s America (176)

RYAN STANDFEST

11. Oz Magazine and British Counterculture: A Case Study in the Reception of Surrealism (190)

DAVID HOPKINS

12. Surrealism and Punk: The Case of COUM Transmissions (207)

MARIE ARLETH SKOV

List of Contributors (224)

Index (227)