

Contents

- 9 To the Readers
- 11 Zonaro Efendi by Philip Mansel
- 15 Italian Period Paintings
- PART I. AN ARTIST OF LIFE AND LIGHT: FAUSTO ZONARO
- 53 Padua, Verona, Rome, Naples, and Venice (1854 to 1890)
- 55 Istanbul (1890-1910)
- 71 The return: Rome, Sanremo, the Italian and French Rivas
- 73 Memories of pain and sufferings that come alive years later in Istanbul
- 75 His contemporaries in Istanbul and his works
- 76 Fausto Zonaro's oil works on wood panels
- 77 The Impressionist and Macchiaioli movements
- 78 Forgeries
- 81 Istanbul Period Paintings
- 151 Some of his works, his son Faustone, his students, and a letter addressed to Mustafa Kemal Atatürk
- PART II: EXCERPTS FROM LEONIA'S DIARY
- 167 Front-Note by Giovanni Gaidoni
- 168 A ray of sunshine: After the flooding of the Adige river in 1882
- 169 The new nest: Re-building the house in Masi with the support of Fausto
- 169 The patent leather shoes: Fausto's brotherly love for Leonia
- 171 Fausto completes his studies in Rome and moves to Venice
- 171 Leonia travels to Venice with her sister Pina to attend scholarship exams
- 172 The first visit: Fausto's first visit to Leonia after her acceptance to the school
- 173 The Devil's Tail: A work Fausto later took with him to Istanbul
- 174 Fausto's visit to Leonia after she obtains good results at school
- 175 A stay in Piazzola: Visiting Count Camerini, a great friend of Fausto
- 175 A daring decision: Fausto's decision to travel to the Orient
- 177 Leonia in Herne Bay (Oct 1893 - Jun 1895)
- 178 Fausto's oriental adventures
- 180 Towards the Orient: Leonia traveling to Istanbul, 1897
- 183 Portraits
- 213 Life in the Orient: Leonia's impressions of Istanbul
- 215 Turkish Women

217	The poet
217	The Turk saying his prayers
218	He must not see me
219	Turkish funerals
219	Wedding of Emin Bey
221	Turkish tolerance
222	Motherly love
222	Two dervish sects
223	Religious devotees
224	The Tenth of Muharrem
225	Good-bye to the Orient
227	Pina's return to Italy
227	Fausto's visit home after the trip of Emperor Wilhelm II to Istanbul
229	When in Sanremo, Fausto helps Leonia and her children facing financial problems (1924/5)
229	The old house in Masi, surveying the house after WWII (1949)

APPENDIX

233	Documents
237	Index Nominum
239	Acknowledgements