

Introducing Biblical Themes and Traditions in the Pseudepigrapha	pp. 1–2
Chapter 1. The Legacy of Solomon the Sage from Qohelet to Josephus Torleif Elgvin	pp. 5–28
Chapter 2. Venereae Daemoniorum: Erotic Demons, Egyptian Monasticism, and the Testament of Solomon Blake A. Jurgens	pp. 29–50
Chapter 3. A New Testament of Adam in the Syriac Revelation of the Magi? Bradley N. Rice	pp. 51–66
Chapter 4. The Shepherd of Hermas' Apocalyptic Visions and Angelic Intermediaries in and in Light of Clement of Alexandria Christopher S. Atkins	pp. 67–80
<hr/>
Chapter 5. Violence and Divine Favor in Liber Antiquitatum Biblicarum Benjamin J. Lappenga	pp. 83–94
Chapter 6. “Clear Eyes, Full Hearts, Can’t Lose”: The Rhetoric of Violence in the Animal Apocalypse John Garza	pp. 95–106
Chapter 7. The Power of Polemics: Jewish Slander against Samaritans in Late Second Temple Period Literature Tim Wardle	pp. 107–122
Chapter 8. Eschatological Expectation and Revolutionary Violence: Israel’s Past as Indicative of Its Future in 1QM and Josephus’ Jewish War Jesse P. Nickel	pp. 123–140

Chapter 9. The Fiery Origins of Gehenna in Isaiah, Enoch, Jesus, and Beyond pp. 141–170
Craig A. Evans

Chapter 10. Violence and “Magic” Tradition pp. 171–197
Matthias R. Hoffmann