

Contents

General editor's preface	x
General editors' preface to the revised series	xiii
Preface	xiv
Introduction	1
1 Edmond Malone, commentary on Henry V , 1790	38
2 Joseph Ritson, response to Malone, 1792	48
3 George Steevens, notes and commentary on Henry V , 1793	51
4 Francis Douce, corrections of Johnson and others, 1807	56
5 Elizabeth Inchbald, morality and heroism in Henry V , 1808	59
6 August Wilhelm von Schlegel, the dramatic representation of war, 1815	62
7 Nathan Drake, effusive praise for Henry V and its title character, 1817	66
8 William Hazlitt, a denunciation of Henry and praise for the play, 1817	69
9 William Oxberry, prefatory remarks on Henry V , 1823	73
10 Augustine Skottowe, Henry V and its sources, 1824	77
11 George Daniel, prefatory remarks to Henry V , 1826	80
12 Thomas Campbell, general remarks on Henry V , 1838	83
13 Thomas Peregrine Courtenay, Henry V and historical fact, 1838	85
14 Charles Knight, the Pictorial Edition of Henry V , 1838	97
15 Joseph Hunter, factual and critical comments on Henry V , 1845	104
16 Hermann Ulrici, on history, war, and morality, 1846	108
17 Gulian Crommelin Verplanck, introduction to Henry V , 1847	113
18 Hartley Coleridge, modified praise for Henry V , 1851	116
19 Henry Norman Hudson, introduction to Henry V , 1852	118
20 Henry Reed, history and Henry, 1855	121
21 William Watkiss Lloyd, a measured and objective reading of Henry V and its hero, 1856	125
22 Georg Gottfried Gervinus, rapturous praise for Henry and a criticism of blind nationalism, 1863	132
23 John Abraham Heraud, Shakespeare's moral charity and a rebuke to Gervinus, 1865	139
24 Henry Norman Hudson, the minor characters of Henry V and the moral superiority of the king, 1872	142

25	Richard Simpson, Henry V and contemporary politics, 1874	148
26	Edward Dowden, high praise for Henry as prince and king, 1875	151
27	Frederick James Furnivall, more praise for Henry as king and man, 1877	155
28	Denton Jaques Snider, the structure of Henry V and praise for the king, 1877	158
29	Algernon Charles Swinburne, on the death of Falstaff, 1880	165
30	Richard Green Moulton, the character of Henry V, 1886	167
31	Oscar Fay Adams, introduction to Henry V , 1888	172
32	George Charles Moore Smith, introduction and notes to Henry V , 1893	175
33	Beverley Ellison Warner, history and dramatic art, 1894	181
34	Barrett Wendell, a mixed assessment of Henry V and its title character, 1894	190
35	Frederick Samuel Boas, discriminating comments on Henry and the play, 1896	195
36	George Bernard Shaw, a scathing denunciation of Henry, 1896	199
37	Georg Morris Cohen Brandes, high praise for Henry and modified praise for the play, 1898	201
38	David McDowell Hannay, strong criticism of Henry, 1898	205
39	Charles Harold Herford, the choruses, the king, the French, and the British, 1899	207
40	J. Lytelton Etty, history and Shakespeare's Henry, 1900	211
41	Sidney Lee, a general assessment of the play and its hero, 1900	215
42	Arthur Wilson Verity, miscellaneous remarks on Henry V , 1900	220
43	Thomas Raynesford Lounsbury, a defense of the romantic drama, 1901	225
44	William Butler Yeats, the 'commonplace' character of Henry V, 1901	227
45	Andrew Cecil Bradley, on Henry as prince and king, 1902	230
46	Felix Emanuel Schelling, on the king, the epic, and the comic in Henry V , 1902	233
47	Herbert Arthur Evans, introduction to Henry V , 1903	236
48	Richard Green Moulton, expanded comments on Henry V , 1903	240
49	Edmund Kerchever Chambers, an overview of Henry V , 1905	242
50	Sidney Lee, Shakespeare and the 'imaginary forces' of the audience, 1906	246
51	Morton Luce, general remarks on the play, 1906	249
52	Charlotte Endymion Porter, original comments on the Chorus and the play, 1906	252
53	Frank Harris, Shakespeare's 'embarrassment' over Henry, 1909	259
54	John Edward Masefield, a harsh assessment of Henry V, 1911	262
55	Charles Edward Montague, the wider truth of Shakespeare's 'way with Agincourt', 1911	264

56	Stopford Augustus Brooke, on patriotism, the king, the troubling aspects of the play and Shakespeare's balance, 1913	269
57	James Brander Matthews, Shakespeare's failed artistry in Henry V , 1913	275
58	Francis Thompson, Shakespeare's native prose style, 1913	277
59	John William Cunliffe, Henry V in Shakespeare's time and ours, 1916	279
60	William Rhys Roberts, patriotism and the Welsh, 1916	285
61	John Arthur Ransome Marriott, history and Henry V , 1918	289
62	Gerald Gould, an ironic reading of Henry V , 1919	293
63	Albert Harris Tolman, defining the 'epic' in Henry V , 1919	300
64	John Stuart Mackenzie, Henry the poseur, 1920	305
65	Elmer Edgar Stoll, Henry V in its time and ours, 1922	310
66	John Cann Bailey, Henry as the plain, honest English king, 1923	317
67	Norbert Hardy Wallis, unstinting praise for the king and the play, 1924	322
68	Harley Granville-Barker, Henry V as marking the danger-point of Shakespeare's career, 1925	325
69	John Cann Bailey, further comments on Henry V , 1929	329
70	Henry Buckley Charlton, Henry V as the greatest of plain men, 1929	331
71	Maurice Roy Ridley, the 'successful' character of Henry V, 1935	334
72	Caroline Frances Eleanor Spurgeon, the swift and soaring imagery of Henry V , 1935	336
73	John Middleton Murry, on Falstaff's death, Henry and history, 1936	339
74	Charles Walter Stansby Williams, on honour and Henry, 1936	344
75	Maurice Roy Ridley, expanded comments on the king and the play, 1937	349
76	Derek Antona Traversi, theme, motif and poetic texture in Shakespeare's sober Henry V , 1941	352
77	George Richard Wilson Knight, Henry V as an exemplary Christian King, 1944	359
78	Eustace Mandeville Wetenhall Tillyard, more negative reaction to Henry V , 1944	363
79	John Leslie Palmer, the swelling monarch and the shrinking man, 1945	369
80	Una Mary Ellis-Fermor, Henry V : the empty statesman-king, 1945	378
	Notes	383
	A select bibliography	404
	Permissions	409
	Index	410