

Contents

Gaining Political Recognition in Western Europe, 1200–1600 Fabrizio TITONE	7
Before the ‘Primo Popolo’: Politics and the Popular Movement at San Gimignano in the First Half of the Thirteenth Century Enrico FAINI	49
Putting Pressure on the Lord: The Fiscal Reforms of Pietro Gambacorta, signore of Pisa (1370–1392) Alma POLONI	75
Flemish Textile Workers’ Struggle for Emancipation in the Thirteenth Century Wim BLOCKMANS	107
Rulers and Ruled: Freedom, Submission, and Dissent in the Florentine Correspondence (Fifteenth Century) Isabella LAZZARINI	137
Putting Pressure on Rulers: Petitions, Disciplined Dissent, and the Commons in Fourteenth-Century England Peter COSS	167
Disciplined Dissent and Nostalgia in Late Medieval England Hannah SKODA	195
Civic Ritual and Disciplined Dissent in Late Medieval England Eliza HARTRICH	223
In the Name of the Commonweal: How Did French Peasants Manage to Obtain a Legal Recognition of Their Rights to Self-Defence During the Hundred Years War? Vincent CHALLET	247
Knowledge and Agency in Catania in the Later Middle Ages Fabrizio TITONE	269

Pushing Back Male Violence in Marriage: England, 1400–1600 Martin INGRAM	307
Conclusion Chris WICKHAM	343
Index of Names	349
Index of Places	354