

Contents

Introduction
Jeffrey Spier and Sara E. Cole	1
1. From Thutmose III to Homer to Blackadder: Egypt, the Aegean, and the “Barbarian Periphery” of the Late Bronze Age World System
Jorrit M. Kelder	4
2. Mediterranean Encounters: Greeks, Carians, and Egyptians in the First Millennium BC
Alexandra Villing	15
3. “I Am Isis”: The Role of Speech in the Cult of Isis
Martin Bommas	42
4. The Creation of New “Cultural Codes”: The Ptolemaic Queens and Their Syncretic Processes with Isis, Hathor, and Aphrodite
Martina Minas-Nerpel	59
5. The Kellis Mammisi: A Painted Chapel from the Final Centuries of the Ancient Egyptian Religion
Olaf E. Kaper	79
6. Appropriation and Synthesis in the Villa of Herodes Atticus at Eva (Loukou), Greece
George Spyropoulos	92
7. “To Isis the Great, Lady of Benevento”: Privately Dedicated Egyptian Obelisks in Imperial Rome and the Twin Obelisks of Benevento Reedited
Luigi Prada and Paul D. Wordsworth	106
Contributors	178