

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	ix
List of Abbreviations	xi
Notes on Contributors	xiii
Series Preface	xv
Acknowledgements	xvii
Note on Translations	xviii
Introduction: Approaches to the Later Imperial Mediterranean as an Environment Emilia Mataix Ferrándiz and Antti Lampinen	1
Part I Imagination and Domination: The Mediterranean as a Conceptual Environment
1 Knights, Kings and Dragons: The Symbolic Conquest of the Mediterranean Sea in Late Antiquity and Its Historical Background Joanna Töyräänvuori	13
2 Migrating Mosaics: Transforming Images of Oceanus and Marine Environments from the Imperial Period to Late Antiquity Alexandra Grigorieva	26
3 Mediterranean as a Contested Environment in Late Antiquity Antti Lampinen	49
Part II A Networked Environment
4 Connecting People in the Mediterranean: Mobility and Migration in Ostia and Portus Arja Karivieri	71
5 ... διά νήσων πλέειν ... Taking the Island Route: Trade and Exchange Along the Coast of Southern Naxos Hallvard R. Indgjerd	88
6 'Stepping across thresholds': Islands as Resilient Spaces of Connectivity in the Passage from Late Antiquity to the Early Middle Ages (c. 500–c. 700) Luca Zavagno and Zeynep Olgun	114
Part III Braving the Sea in the Later Empire
7 'Washed by the Waves': Fighting against Shipwrecking in the Later Roman Empire Emilia Mataix Ferrándiz	133

Contents

8 Upwind Sailing Capabilities of Square-Rigged Ships in Late Antiquity and the Ramifications for Trade Networks Doug Forsyth 149

9 On the Byzantine Tradition of D. 14.2.9 (Maec. Ex Lege Rhodia): A Note Concerning the Emperor as Ruler of the Sea Valerio Massimo Minale 167

Bibliography 181

Index 209

xvii List of Abbreviations

xviii Notes on Contributors

xix Series Preface

xx Acknowledgements

xxii Note on Translations

1 Introduction: Approaches to the Later Imperial Mediterranean as an Environment Frank Mönk Frank Mönk and Arti Lanquar

11 Part I: Imagination and Domination: The Mediterranean as a Conceptual Environment

13 1. Knights, Kings and Dragons: The Symbolic Content of the Mediterranean Sea in Late Antiquity and its Historical Background Joann Tsykavros

26 2. Mithras Mosaic: Transforming Images of Oceans and Marine Environments from the Imperial Period to Late Antiquity Alexandra Goyens

49 3. Mediterranean as a Contested Environment in Late Antiquity Arti Lanquar

71 Part II: A Networked Environment

71 4. Connecting People to the Mediterranean: Mobility and Migration in Ours and Yours Arti Lanquar

88 5. ... and speed away... Taking the Island Route: Trade and Exchange Along the Coast of Southern Mesopotamia Julian K. Jørgensen

124 6. Shipping across thresholds: lands as resilient spaces of connectivity in the Passage from Late Antiquity to the Early Middle Ages (c. 500–c. 700) Arti Lanquar and Yves Quénec'h

133 Part III: Braving the Sea in the Later Empire

133 7. Washed by the Waves: Fighting against Shipwrecking in the Later Roman Empire Frank Mönk Frank Mönk