

Contents

1. Introduction: Universities as transformative social spaces 1
Joanna Pfaff-Czarnecka, Susan Thieme, and Andrea Kölbel

SECTION I: MOBILITIES

2. Global visions, national students: Narratives of 'elsewhere' in Nepal's national education policy 31
Uma Pradhan
3. Learning abroad, working at 'home': Commonwealth fellows and the many worlds of Indian Science 55
Dhruv Raina and Surinder S. Jodhka
4. The challenge of mastering one's own future—Students' negotiations of mobility in Meghalaya, Northeast India 87
Katrin Renschler and Eva Gerharz
5. Untold stories of international students at Jawaharlal Nehru University 115
Claudia Baumann
6. Building bridges: Narratives from and about educational consultants as mediators in international student mobility 137
Sazana Jayadeva and Susan Thieme
7. Between knowledge, activism, and the global market: International students at the Islamic University (Daru'l Uloom) Deoband, India, and the International Islamic University in Islamabad, Pakistan 163
Dietrich Reetz

SECTION II: MOBILIZATIONS

8. Transforming universities: Student activism, caste, and politics in North India Satendra Kumar	213
9. 'Another kind of beating': On the complexities of political violence in everyday student politics in Bangladesh Julian Kuttig	243
10. Deserted university campuses, social mobilization, and identity politics in Nepal Reidun Faye and Andrea Kölbl	265
11. Transnational political engagements and diasporic connections in Nepali education-related migration to Denmark Karen Valentin	289
About the authors	315
Index	321