Contents

List of Figures ix
Acknowledgments x

Introduction: Visual Storytelling and Filming the Historical Past 1
The Historical Film 6
"Visioning the Past"—New Research on History Painting 10
The Films Chosen for This Analysis 12

1 Realism and the Sublime in Cinema and Painting 15
Realism: Accuracy, Authenticity, and Anachronism 17
The Sublime 20
History Painting and the Historical Film 25
Loutherbourg: The Realistic Sublime 29
Bryullov: The Empathetic Sublime 31
Cole: The Apocalyptic Sublime 32
Gérôme: The Spectacular Sublime 34

2 Meek's Cutoff: Realism and the Sublime in the Historical Film 49
Realism and the Sublime in Meek's Cutoff 52
Landscape and the Sublime 55
Accuracy, Authenticity, and Anachronism: Realism and History 63

3 Girl with a Pearl Earring: Realism, Representation, and the Dutch Golden Age 73
Making the "Real" 78
Looking and Seeing 84
Eroticism of the Everyday 91
Film as Art History 94

4 The Baader Meinhof Complex: "Journalism" as "Art" 103
The Baader Meinhof Complex and Journalism 105
Realism and Authenticity 113
Visual Rhetoric and Narrative Structure 114

The Inventio, or the Process of Developing and Refining the Argument 118
The Dispositio, or Arrangement 120
The Elocutio: Visual Style 122
History as Thriller, Thriller as History 136

5 Roel Reiné's Admiral: Grand Narratives and the Spectacle 139
National History, the "Nationalist Historical Film," and Nation Building 141
Epic Scale and the Grand Manner 143
Past into Present 163

6 Belle: Slavery, Race, and the Portrait 165
Portraiture, Politics, and Identity 168
Authenticity, History, and Realism 174
Painting Embodied 190

7 al-Mumya' (The Night of Counting the Years): Time and History 193
Time and History 194
Ancient and Modern in Egyptian Cinema 202
Shadi Abdel Salam's al-Mumya' 209
Realism, the Sublime, and the Anachronism 218

8 Conclusion 221

Bibliography 227
Index 252