

Contents

List of Illustrations [vii]

Acknowledgments [xi]

INTRODUCTION: Marking Skin:

A Cutaneous Collection [1]

Katherine Dauge-Roth and Craig Koslofsky

PART I MARKED ENCOUNTERS IN ### AMERICA, ASIA, AND AFRICA

1. "Pownced, Pricked, or Paynted": English Ideas of Tattooing as Indigenous Literacy [19]

Mairin Odle

2. Indigenous Taiwanese Skin Marking in Early Modern European and Chinese Eyes [37]

Xiao Chen

3. Following the Trail of the Slave Trade: Branding, Skin, and Commodification [58]

Katrina H. B. Keefer and Matthew S. Hopper

PART II MARKS OF FAITH

4. Jerusalem Under the Skin: The History of Jerusalem Pilgrimage Tattoos [85]

Mordechay Lewy

5. Stigmata and the Mind-Body Connection [124]

Allison Stedman

6. The Invisible Mark: Representing Baptism in Early Modern French Dramaturgy [143]

Ana Fonseca Conboy

7. Rabies and Relics: Cutaneous Marks and Popular
Healing in Early Modern Europe [163]

Katherine Dauge-Roth

PART III STANDING OUT: MARKS OF HONOR, SHAME, AND BEAUTY

8. Skin Narratives: Speaking About Wounds and
Scars in Shakespeare's Coriolanus [199]

Nicole Nyffenegger

9. Branding on the Face in Early Modern Europe [220]

Craig Koslofsky

10. Mouches Volantes: The Enigma of Paste-On Beauty
Marks in Seventeenth-Century France [238]

Claire Goldstein

AFTERWORD: Cultural Inscriptions: Body
Marking After 1800 [257]

Peter S. Erickson

List of Contributors [269]

Index [273]