

Contents

List of Figure	ix
List of Images	xi
List of Tables	xiii
List of Maps	xv
Acknowledgments	xvii
Technical Note	xxi
List of Acronyms	xxiii

PART I: UNDERSTANDING ISLAMISM

Introduction: An Overview of Islamism in Central Asia	3
1: Secular Authoritarianism, Ideology, and Islamist Mobilization	23

PART II: THE USSR POLITICIZES ISLAM

2: The Russian Revolution and Muslim Mobilization	49
3: The Atheist State: Repressing and Politicizing Islam	76
4: Muslim Belief and Everyday Resistance	104

PART III: TAJIKISTAN: FROM MODERATE ISLAMISTS TO MUSLIM DEMOCRATS

5: The Islamic Revival Party Challenges Communism	137
6: A Democratic Islamic Party Confronts an Extremist Secular State	179
7: Society and Islamist Ideas in Tajikistan	215

PART IV: UZBEKISTAN: FROM SALAFISTS TO SALAFI JIHADISTS

8: Seeking Justice and Purity: Islamists against Communism and Karimov	243
--	-----

9: Making Extremists: The Uzbek Jihad Moves to Afghanistan	277
10: Society and Islamist Ideas in Uzbekistan	322

PART V: KYRGYZSTAN: CIVIL ISLAM AND EMERGENT ISLAMISTS

11: Religious Liberalization and Civil Islam in Kyrgyzstan	355
12: Emergent Islamism in Kyrgyzstan	381
13: Society and Islamist Ideas in Kyrgyzstan	410

PART VI: FROM CENTRAL ASIA TO SYRIA:
TRANSNATIONAL SALAFI JIHADISTS

14: Central Asians Join the Syrian Jihad	441
15: From Central Asia to Afghanistan, Syria, and Beyond	489

Appendix : Qualitative Research Method and Sources	511
Glossary	523
Index	529