

Table of Contents

List of Illustrations	7
Indecent Bodies in Early Modern Visual Culture: An Introduction Fabian Jonietz, Mandy Richter, Alison G. Stewart	15
1. Taste, Lust, and the Male Body: Sexual Representations in Early Sixteenth-Century Northern Europe Alison G. Stewart	39
2. Private Viewings: The Frankfurt Context of Sebald Beham's Die Nacht Miriam Hall Kirch	65
3. To Show or Not to Show? Marcantonio Raimondi and the Representation of Female Pubic Hair Mandy Richter	87
4. Treating Bodily Impurities: Skin, Art, and Medicine Romana Sammern	109
5. Indecent Exposure and Honourable Uncovering in Renaissance Portraits of Women Bette Talvacchia	129
6. Lust in Translation: Agency, Sexuality, and Gender Configuration in Pauwels Franck's Allegories of Love Ricardo De Mambro Santos	155

7. 'So This Guy Walks into a Forest...': Obscenity, Humour, Sex, and the Equine Body in Hans Baldung's Horses in a Forest Woodcuts (1534) 175
Pia F. Cuneo

8. Indecent Creativity and the Tropes of Human Excreta 197
Fabian Jonietz

9. 'It All Turns to Shit' – The Land of Cockaigne in Sixteenth-Century German Woodcuts 229
Susanne Meurer

10. Noël's and Bodily Fluids: The Business of Low-Country Ceremonial Fountains 257
Catherine Emerson

- Index 279