

CONTENTS

Part I	First Things	1
1	Introduction	3
	A Précis	7
	On Literature	10
	On Method	13
	On Me	17
2	Ecstatic Church: Pentecostal-Charismatic Christianity in Australia—Antecedents, History, and Present Shape	19
	What Is Pentecostal-Charismatic Christianity?	20
	Antecedents and Beginnings	21
	Pentecostalism and PCC in Australia	23
	What Kind of a “Place” Is a PCC Church?	29
	The PCC “Realm”—and Beyond	29
	The PCC Church as “Greedy Institution”	30
	Conclusions	35
3	A Happy Science: LGBTQ+ Sexuality and Pentecostal- Charismatic Christianity	37
	Michel Foucault: Sexuality, Power, and Discourse	38
	The Will to Knowledge	39
	The Reverse Discourse	42

	Reversing Discourses: Gender and Power Between LGBTQ+ People and PCC	45
	Effecting Reversal: Authenticity, Apologetics, and “Counter-Rejection”	46
	Returning Fire: The Disciplining of Sexuality	48
	Conclusions	52
4	Perfection and Anxiety: Theological and Scriptural Foundations of Pentecostal-Charismatic Christian Attitudes to LGBTQ+	55
	Pentecostals and PCC on Sin, Holiness, and Salvation	55
	The Holiness Movement and “Entire Sanctification”—Theological Antecedents to Baptism in the Holy Spirit	56
	Sanctification and Anxiety in Pentecostalism and PCC	59
	PCC, Healing, and the Human Body	61
	People of the Book: Pentecostal-Charismatic Christianity, the Bible, and LGBTQ+	63
	The PCC Hermeneutic: Encounter and Common-sense Realism	63
	Conclusions	66
Part II	The Narratives	69
5	The Battleground: Discursive Conflict Between LGBTQ+ People and Pentecostal-Charismatic Churches	71
	“It was always treated like it was almost a toxic hazard”—Vesper’s Story	73
	Vesper and the Battleground	79
	“I decided that I wanted to live”—Yule’s Story	83
	Yule and the Battleground	90
	Conclusions	94
6	The Line: Barriers to Ministry and Community for LGBTQ+ People in Pentecostal-Charismatic Christianity	97
	“I had grown up in this place—I had an all-access pass”—Xavi’s Story	98

	Xavi and the Line	102
	“Christianity was everything, and I wanted other people to be Christians as well”—Morgan’s Story	109
	Morgan and “the line”	116
	“I constructed for myself a really big sort of duality of good and evil”—Iva’s Story	123
	Iva and the Line	128
	Conclusions	131
7	Turbulent Waters: Australian Pentecostal-Charismatic Christianity and Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity Change Efforts	135
	Faith-Based SOGICE: A Brief Summary	138
	SOGICE in Australia	141
	“Even though I struggle with this, they struggle with that, and so we could all support one another”—Gabriele’s Story	146
	Gabriele and SOGICE	149
	“I Think the Only People Who Have Managed to Stay in It Are Ones Who Become Completely Religiously Obsessed”—Pax’s Story	152
	Pax and SOGICE	155
	“It Had Never Changed My Sexuality at All”—Yazz’s Story	158
	Yazz and SOGICE	163
	Conclusions	166
8	Attempted Integrations: LGBTQ+ Christians Who Remained in PCC Churches	169
	“I was also trying to live the Christian narrative that people expected me to live”—Zan’s Story	169
	Zan and Integration	175
	“I couldn’t be happier with the way in which people have journeyed with me”—Harley’s Story	181
	Harley and Integration	187
	Conclusions	189

9	Counter-Rejections: LGBTQ+ People Leaving Pentecostal-Charismatic Christianity	193
	“How many people are going to want to be on suicide watch after listening to this?”—Jace’s Story	194
	Jace and Counter-rejection	198
	“Sometimes I just go on YouTube and look at the latest Hillsong songs or something”—Otzar’s Story	205
	Otzar and Counter-rejection	208
	“I think it all happened for a reason for me to have the beliefs that I have today”—Sasha’s Story	214
	Sasha and Counter-rejection	216
	“It just seemed in hindsight to be a bit of a false thing”—Wynn’s Story	220
	Wynn and Counter-rejection	222
	Conclusions	225
10	“Born wrong:” Pentecostal-Charismatic Christianity and “Troubling Bodies”	227
	The Trouble with Gender: The Thought of Judith Butler	228
	“There’s never, ever been a time in my life, and possibly never will be again, when I felt so strongly connected”—Sage’s Story	231
	Sage’s Gender Trouble	236
	“If this was not of God, how come He’d brought me through this?”—Phoenix’s Story	242
	Phoenix’s Gender Trouble	245
	Conclusions	252
	Part III Final Things	255
11	Epilogue	257
	In Summary	257
	No Sense of an Ending ...	262

Appendix	265
References	269
Index	285