

CONTENTS

| | |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| PART I: INTRODUCTION | 7 |
| Preface | 9 |
| Kim Beerden | |
| Introduction: Stop the Steal! | 15 |
| Frederick G. Naerebout | |
| PART II: CONTROVERSIES AND LITERARY TRADITIONS | 41 |
| Whose Persecution? Early Christianity as a Metaphor in Contemporary American Political Discourse | 43 |
| K.P.S. (Renske) Janssen | |
| Spartans on the Capitol: Recent Far-Right Appropriations of Spartan Militarism in the USA and their Historical Roots | 59 |
| Stephen Hodkinson | |
| Leonidas Goes North: Swedish Appropriations of Sparta and the Battle of Thermopylae and their Wider European Context | 85 |
| Johannes Siapkas | |
| Thomas Sjösvärd | |
| Pop Culture against Modernity: New Right-Wing Movements and the Reception of Sparta | 103 |
| Julia Müller | |
| Fato Profugus. Aeneas the Refugee: An Italian Debate | 123 |
| Marco Gay | |
| The Classicist as a Literary Character in Contemporary Literature: The Depiction of a Discipline | 139 |
| Barbara Holler | |
| PART III: CONTROVERSIES AND HERITAGE ETHICS | 155 |
| Ancient Death and the Contemporary World: The Role of Graeco-Roman Death in Museum Display | 157 |
| Patricia Kret | |

| | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Queering the National Museum of Antiquities | 177 |
| Suus van den Berg | |
| Dummie de Mummie: An Egyptian Body as the Undead, Oriental Other | 193 |
| Daniel Soliman | |
| Who Owns the Road to the Roman past? | 215 |
| The Case of the Via Vipsania aka the chaussée romaine, the Römerstrasse, the Romeinse kassei, aka the Via Belgica | |
| Liesbeth Claes | |
| Notes on the contributors | 231 |