

Contents

Preface VII

List of Figures and Table IX

Notes on Contributors X

- 1 Introduction: Population Displacements and Multiple Mobilities
in the Late Ottoman Empire 1

Nicole Immig

PART 1

Population Movements and Migrants as Assets

- 2 Demographic Engineering and the Unionist Legacy 19

George Kalpadakis

- 3 Seeking a Homeland, Serving the Empire: Muslim Migrants from Montenegro and Their Integration within the Ottoman Bureaucracy
(1870–1914) 35

Denis Ljuljanović

PART 2

Differentiating and Hierarchizing People on the Move

- 4 Muslims of Epirus, Muslims of Empire? The Cham Issue in Relation to Albanian, Greek and Turkish National Projects (1908–25) 59

Renaud Dorlhiac

- 5 'Unreliable Muslims' out and 'Loyal Subjects of the Tsar' in?:
Two Different Forms of Migration Envisaged by the Russian Authorities in the Southwestern Caucasus and Eastern Anatolia in World War I 77

Ozan Arslan

PART 3

Reinterpreting Population Displacements

- 6 The Ottoman Era in Yemen and Jewish Emigration (1881–1914) 105
Bat-Zion Eraqi Klorman
- 7 Flags and Blood: European Jews, Refugee Restrictions, and Rioting in 1929 Palestine 124
Sarah Shields

PART 4

Lives beyond Borders

- 8 Migrating Economic Identities in the Ottoman Empire:
 Regional Expressions of the Global Market in the Greek Banker's
 Andreas Syngros Autobiography 147
Catherine Brégianni
- 9 Mapping Europe with Love: Spaces and Conjunctions between Smyrna and Munich 171
Simone Egger
- 10 Afterword: Transitions from a Transimperial to a Transnational Migration Society 197
Stefan Rohdewald
- Index of Names 217

2023-A-9329