

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction: Rethinking Tantra through Ethnography Carola E. Lorea and Rohit Singh	1
 Part I: On Materiality and Mediation: Lived Practices of Texts, Objects, and Media
Chapter 1 An Ethnography of Tantra in the Western Himalayas: The Material Substance of Practical Rituals William S. Sax	61
Chapter 2 Observing Participation, Transgressing Hermeneutics: Bali's Tantric Script Practices and the Limits of Participant Observation Annette Hornbacher	87
Chapter 3 The Conch as a Tantric Artifact: Metaphysics of a Number and the Twirled Lives of Text and Practice Sukanya Sarbadhikary	111

Chapter 4
WhatsApp Bagalāmukhī! Social Life and Experiences of a Tantric Goddess	137
Sravana Borkataky-Varma

Part II: Embodiment, Identity, and Experience:
Conversations with Tantric Livelihoods

Chapter 5
Folk Tantra and Healing: An Ethnography of Traditional Healers in the Darjeeling Hills and Sikkim	165
Jarrood Hyam

Chapter 6
Songs for Siddhi : An Ethnographic Analysis of Bāul Fakiri Sādhana	191
Keith Edward Cantú

Chapter 7
Serving the Divine Element in Humans: Everyday (Tantric) Vaiṣṇavism and What Begging Means to Bāuls	219
Kristin Hanssen

Part III: Institutions and Individuals in the Making of Tantric Traditions: To Be or Become Tantric

Chapter 8
The Cremation Ground, the Battlefield, and the Path of Compassion; or, What Makes the Fabric of an Individual's Tantric Encounter?	243
Nike-Ann Schröder

Chapter 9
The Spectrum of Eclecticism and Conservatism within Kerala's Tantric Traditions: A Case Study of Meppaṭ Sampradāya	269
Maciej Karasinski

Chapter 10
Tantric Lives in Bengal and Bali: Toward a Comparative Ethnography	297
June McDaniel
Afterword	327
Geoffrey Samuel
List of Contributors	351
Index	357