

Table of Contents

Preface.....	VII
Abbreviations .....	XV
Translations .....	XIX
Introduction.....	1
A. Homo Pictor? .....	1
B. Working Assumptions of the Study .....	6
I. Discourse Analysis.....	6
II. Which Traditions?.....	8
III. Religion or Philosophy?.....	11
C. Outline of the Study .....	18
Chapter 1: Image Discourses .....	19
A. The Hebrew Bible and the Dead Sea Scrolls .....	19
I. The Aniconic Discourse .....	20
II. The Iconic Discourse.....	28
III. Are They Connected?.....	32
Excursus: The Septuagint's Translation of the Previously Discussed Texts ..	34
IV. Qumran .....	34
V. The Biblical Traditions: Moving Forward.....	39
B. Plato of Athens .....	40
I. What is an Image?.....	44
II. The Nature of Reality: The Sun, the Line, and the Mathematical Cosmos.....	49
III. Public Discourse, Ethics, Politics.....	55
IV. Summary .....	56

C. The Wisdom of Solomon .....	58
I. Images of God's Eternity and Goodness .....	59
II. Summary .....	68
D. Philo of Alexandria .....	68
I. "His Invisible Image, the Most Holy Logos" ( Conf. 147) .....	70
II. Summary .....	78
E. Plutarch of Chaeronea .....	78
I. "Generation in Matter is an Image of Being" ( Is. Os. 372f) .....	80
II. The Philosophically Educated Ruler as εἰκὼν θεοῦ .....	87
III. Summary .....	94
F. Dio Chrysostom's Olympic Discourse (Oratio 12) .....	95
I. A Single, Immovable, and Enduring Form .....	96
II. Summary .....	103
G. Three Stoics of the First Century A.D. .....	104
I. Seneca the Younger .....	104
II. Musonius Rufus .....	107
III. Epictetus .....	109
IV. Summary .....	112
H. The Apostle Paul .....	113
I. The Outliers: Romans 1:23 and 1 Corinthians 11:7 .....	115
II. From Adam to Christ .....	116
1. 1 Corinthians 15 .....	116
2. 2 Corinthians 5 .....	121
3. Romans 5 and 8 .....	122
III. From Moses to Christ .....	128
IV. Summary .....	133
I. Image Discourses: Résumé .....	135
I. The Hebrew Bible and Plato .....	135
II. The Early Roman Imperial Era .....	136
1. The Restrictive Application of εἰκὼν θεοῦ .....	136
2. Proximity and Distance in the Relation between Model and Image .....	137
3. The Theological, Soteriological, and Ethical Value of Images .....	138

Chapter 2: Exegetical Prolegomena for Colossians 1:15–20 .... 140

A. Textual Criticism ..... 140

I. Verse 16 ..... 141

II. Text to be Used for Exegesis ..... 144

B. Origin of the Text ..... 144

I. Author of Colossians ..... 144

1. External Evidence ..... 144

2. Internal Evidence ..... 146

3. Evaluation ..... 151

II. Author of Colossians 1:15–20 ..... 153

III. Addressees ..... 158

1. External Indications ..... 158

2. Internal Indications ..... 160

3. Evaluation ..... 160

IV. Place and Time of Composition ..... 160

V. Target Location ..... 162

VI. Situation: The Question of the ‘Opponent’ ..... 164

C. Anatomy of the Text ..... 167

I. Introduction: The Colometric Printing of Colossians 1:15–20 ..... 167

II. Outline: The Place of Colossians 1:15–20 in the Letter as a Whole ..... 170

1. The Supremacy and Relevance of Christ: Colossians 1:1–3:17 ..... 170

2. The Unity of Colossians 1:1–23 – An ‘Out and Back’ ..... 171

III. Function of Colossians 1:15–20 ..... 175

1. Laudatory Function ..... 175

2. Didactic-Paraenetic Function ..... 176

IV. Genre of Colossians 1:15–20 ..... 179

1. Prioritizing Function over Form: One Modern and Three Ancient

Examples ..... 184

Excursus: A Note on Generic Hybridity and Formgeschichte ..... 187

2. Conclusion ..... 190

Chapter 3: Exegesis of Colossians 1:15–20 ..... 191

A. Verses 15–16: What is the “Image of the Invisible God”? ..... 192

I. 15a: Image of the Invisible God ..... 192

II. 15b: Firstborn of All Creation ..... 196

III. 16: All Things Created in, through, and unto Him .....	200
1. ἐν αὐτῷ, δι' αὐτοῦ, εἰς αὐτόν .....	203
2. Proposal.....	216
3. Conclusion: Verses 15–16.....	216
B. Verse 17: The Supremacy of Christ .....	217
I. 17a: He is before All Things .....	217
II. 17b: All Things Hold Together in Him .....	219
C. Verse 18a: The Head of the Body, Which is the Church .....	223
D. Verses 18b–20: Restorative Reconciliation .....	227
I. 18b: The Beginning, Firstborn of the Dead.....	228
II. 19: All the Fullness .....	229
III. 20: All Things .....	232
IV. 20a: The Term ἀποκαταλλάσσω.....	232
V. Christ as the Prototypical Human: The “Beginning” and “Firstborn of the Dead” in Colossians 1:18b–20 .....	239
 Chapter 4: Colossians among its Contemporaries.....	242
A. The Image Concept of Colossians .....	242
I. The Image, Creation, and Restorative Reconciliation .....	242
II. The Image and the Knowledge of God.....	245
III. The Image as Ethical Model.....	246
B. Situating Colossians in the Image Discourse of the First Century A.D. .	247
I. Dio Chrysostom and the Three Stoics .....	247
II. The Wisdom of Solomon, Philo, Plutarch, and Paul .....	249
C. Résumé.....	253
 Concluding Reflections: “As We Catch Sight of the Sun in the Water” .....	256
A. The Problematic Nature of Images.....	256

B. Inclusion in the Image: A Positive Estimation of the Discrepancy between Model and Image..... 259

C. All Things Hold Together in Him..... 261

Bibliography ..... 267

Index of References ..... 295

Index of Modern Authors ..... 307

Index of Subjects ..... 309