

Contents

2024 C 765

- 1 Introduction Dislocation, Modernism, and the Materiality of Exile

Transposition

- 20 Chapter 1 Architecture's Material Abstraction: László Moholy-Nagy and the Industrial City
- 56 Chapter 2 Minimal Dwelling: Walter
Gropius, Marcel Breuer, and László
Moholy-Nagy at Isokon in England

Contingent Conditions

- 96 Chapter 3 Images in Exile: Lucia Moholy's Bauhaus Negatives and the Construction of a Modernist Legacy
- 124 Chapter 4 Assimilating Unease: László
Moholy-Nagy and the Wartime/Postwar Chicago Bauhaus
- 154 Chapter 5 Domesticating the Grid:
Ludwig Hilberseimer's Housing

Remediation

- 206 Chapter 6 Exigencies of Materializing
Vision: Josef Albers's Glass Paintings to Homage to the Square
- 242 Chapter 7 Anni Albers's Design Theory and Its Objects: Typewriter Studies to Architecture's Pliable Plane
- 274 Chapter 8 Herbert Bayer's Expanded
Vision and the Instrumentalizing of Design
- 300 Acknowledgments
- 303 Notes
- 335 Index
- 344 Photo Credits