

Contents

Preface	viii
Acknowledgements	ix
Editorial Note	xi
List of Abbreviations	xii
Introduction	1
THOMAS L. THOMPSON
PART 1
Status Quaestionis	5
1 Undesirable Developments in Biblical Studies (Old Testament): A Continuously Self Falsifying Discipline	7
PART 2
Methods	27
2 The Gods of the Fathers: Criticism of Albrecht Alt's 'Vätergott'-Hypothesis	29
3 A Methodological Alternative to the Present Study of the Old Testament. Otto Plöger's 65th Birthday	56
4 "You Cannot Prove It, but It Is a Fact that . . ." Figure of Speech Instead of Method in Critical Studies of the Old Testament	67
5 Some Comments on John Van Seters' Methodological Sketch: 'The Yahwist as Historian, Part I and II'	75

6	Since When Did “Jenes Israel” (Martin Noth) Exist? Comments on ‘Israel’ as an Ecclesiological Body in the TNK (Biblia Hebraica et Aramaica)	93
PART 3
History and Ideology		111
7	The Orientation of Jerusalem’s Temple and the ‘Sacred Orientation’ of Early Christian Churches	113
8	The Function of the So-called ‘Torah Niche’ in the Ancient Synagogue of Dura Europos Reconsidered	128
9	Cultural-political Globalization Efforts in Antiquity and Their Significance for the Texts of the Bible	141
PART 4
Texts and Canon		149
10	The Function of the Canonical Corpus of Texts in Judaism in Pre-Christian Times. Considerations of Canon-criticism	151
11	The Role of the Mesopotamian ‘Exilic Community’ (gālūt) and Its Theological Imprint on the Jewish Bible	165
12	A Rough Outline of a Torah-hypothesis	182
PART 5
Torah		189
13	Genesis 17 as the Centre of a Pesach Cycle of the Torah	191
14	Wayyashav Avraham (וישב אברהם): Why Is Abraham Returning to His Servants from One of the Mountains in the Land of Moriah Without Isaac?	210
PART 6
Nevi'im		219
15	The Inventio of the ספר התורה in 2 Kings 22: The Structure, Intention, and Function of Legends of Discovery	221

16	The Correspondence Between Isa 56:1–8 and 66:18–24 and the Prophetic Surpassing of the Torah: Yad wa-Shem	240
PART 7
	Ketuvim	251
17	“At the Rise of Dawn”: Hotheaded Jonah’s Annoyance with the Crimson Worm	253
18	Ecclesiological Aspects of a Canonical Hermeneutics of the Hebrew Bible (TNK)	262
	Index	276
	Index of Sources	279
	Copenhagen International Seminar Series	284