

Contents

List of Contributors	xiii
References to Main Works by Pufendorf	xvii
Pufendorf's International Political and Legal Thought: An Introduction Peter Schröder	1
I. HISTORICAL AND INTELLECTUAL CONTEXTS
1. Pufendorf on Confessional Strife and Interstate Relations Nathaniel Boyd	23
2. De Systematibus Civitatum : Pufendorf on Confederations and Composite Kingdoms Ben Holland	41
3. Rhetorical Strategy and Legal Force in Pufendorf's State of Nature Ioannis Evrigenis and Mark Somos	59
4. Pufendorf's Contract Theory of the State and the Distinction between Citizens and Foreigners Laetitia Ramelet	83
5. Pufendorf on European Conquest and Non-European Peoples Theo Christov	99
6. 'Infinite Right': Proportionality and Liability in Early Modern Ethics of War and Self-Defence Johan Olsthoorn	119
II. CONCEPTS AND RECEPTIONS
7. Pufendorf's Idea of Natural Equality Thomas Behme	139
8. Sovereignty and Interstate Relations Peter Schröder	155

xii CONTENTS

9. Sex and Gender in Pufendorf's International Political Thought: Protecting the Body Politic with Body Politics and with a (Gendered) Politics of Self-Esteem Eva Odzuck	175
10. Slavery Kari Saastamoinen	195
11. Pufendorf's Revaluation of Hobbes's Friend–Enemy Distinction and Law of War Heikki Haara	213
12. The Reception of Pufendorf's 'International Thought' in Eighteenth-Century Germany Ere Nokkala	233
13. Pufendorf's Enduring Legacy for International Law Camilla Boisen	251
Index	271