

CONTENTS

1	1 Introduction	1
	Maggie Ann Bowers and Ben Dew
Part I Before 1918		15
2	From the Moon to Kennington Common: British Perceptions of the Poland and the Poles 1750–1850	17
	Adam Zamoyski
3	Brave and Patriotic Poles: British Politics and Polish Independence, 1830–1847	39
	Milesz K. Cybowski
4	Why Britain? The Motives and Circumstances of Polish Political Refugees' Arrivals to the United Kingdom in the 1830s and 1840s	63
	Krzysztof Marchlewicz
5	Polish History in Britain: The Work of Napoleon Feliks Żaba, Leon Szadurski and J.F. Gomozyński	87
	Ben Dew

6	“Poland Has No Claim on You”: By Celia’s Arbour and British Representations of Poland in the Victorian Era Thomas McLean	113
Part II After 1918		135
7	Polish Post-World-War-II Exiles in Britain: The London Wiadomości and Its Cultural Milieu Dorota Kołodziejczyk	137
8	Migrant Lives and the Dynamics of (Non)belonging in the Polish-British Works of A.M. Bakalar, Wioletta Greg, and Agnieszka Dale Martyna Bryła	161
9	A Country Constructed from Memories: Representations of Poland and Poles in Migrant Writing in the Twenty-First Century Joanna Kosmalska	185
10	Poles Among Others: Literary Perspectives on Polish Migrants in Britain Since 2004 Dirk Uffelmann	209
11	The Good Pole in an Ailing Britain: An Imagological Approach to Polish Migration in British Literature Joanna Rostek	237
	Index	259