

Contents

Citation Information	vi
Notes on Contributors	viii
Introduction: Security perception and security policy in Central Europe, 1989–2019	1
Tamás Csiki Varga
1 The security perception and security policy of Hungary, 1989–2018	9
Ádám Budai
2 Security perception and security policy of the Slovak Republic, 1993–2018	23
Tomáš Čížik
3 The security perception and security policy of the Czech Republic, 1993–2018	38
Zdeněk Kříž
4 The security perception and security policy of Ukraine, 1991–2018	53
Hennadiy Maksak
5 The security perception and security policy of Austria, 1989–2017	66
Tamás Levente Molnár
6 The security perception and security policy of Poland, 1989–2017	80
Milena Palczewska
7 Security perception and security policy in Romania since the 1989 Revolution	96
Alexandra Sarcinschi
8 Security perception in Croatia since the declaration of independence	114
László Szerencsés
9 The security perception and security policy of Serbia	129
Aleksandar Vanchoski
Index	144