Contents

List of contributors		ix
1	Introduction to the Research Handbook on Law and Political Systems Robert M. Howard, Rebecca A. Reid, and Kirk A. Randazzo	1
2	Court-curbing through legal reforms or coercion? Aylin Aydin-Cakir	8
3	Majoritarians in robes Todd Curry and Michael Romano	25
4	Gender, race, and politics in judicial process Tao Dumas and Alexandra Mannix	40
5	Judges and politics in UK courts Lewis Graham	57
6	Government transparency and judicial deference Gbemende Johnson	71
7	A court of law or a court of judges? Maoz Rosenthal and Shai Talmor	85
8	Planting seeds but bearing different fruit Kyle Shen	99
9	Explaining congressional support for the federal judiciary Jake S. Truscott and Teena Wilhelm	122
10	Instrumentalization of constitutional law in Central Asia Alexei Trochev and Alisher Juzgenbayev	139
11	Politicization of courts in European democracies Maria Popova and Christine Rothmayr Allison	169
12	Constitution-making and transnational expertise: lessons from the 2014 Tunisian Constitution Alicia Pastor y Camarasa	186
13	The battle for judicial independence Mónica Castillejos-Aragón	200
14	Public support and compliance with high courts around the world Amanda Driscoll and Martín Gandur	212

15	Open justice at highest courts Philipp Meyer	234
16	Courting dissent Hayley Munir and Syed Rashid Munir	254
17	The theoretical and empirical relationship between legal pluralism and economic development Valenta Kabo	271
18	The Caribbean Court of Justice Harold A. Young	289
19	Law and violence against civilians M.P. Broache	305
20	Strategic deference of the European Court of Justice Joshua Boston and Dino Hadzic	325
21	Conclusion to the Research Handbook on Law and Political Systems Kirk A. Randazzo, Rebecca A. Reid, and Robert M. Howard	344
Index		355