

CONTENTS

Foreword	vii
Tunku Zain Al-'Abidin ibni Tuanku Muhriz
About the Contributors	xviii
1. Introduction	1
Norshahril Saat, A'an Suryana, and Mohd Faizal Musa
Part I: Continuing and Emerging Trends
2. The Trendsetters of Islam throughout Indonesian History	15
Komaruddin Hidayat
3. The Salafi-Jihadi Identity and Malaysia's Battle with Islamist Extremism	34
Ahmad Fauzi Abdul Hamid
Part II: States and Organizations Driving Trends
4. Extremism in Malaysia: Civil Servants as Trendsetters and Conduits of Trends	65
Mohd Faizal Musa
5. Digital Anti-Islamist Activism at the Forefront of Political Polarization in Indonesia	87
Yuji Mizuno

6.	Surveillance Capitalism and Dataization among Religious Organizations in Singapore Faris Ridzuan and Afra Alatas	109
7.	Being Funny is Trendy: NU Garis Lurus vs NU Garis Lucu A'an Suryana	129
Part III: Influencers Driving Trends
8.	Amar Makruf dan Nahi Mungkar : Moral Policing of Female Muslim Celebrities and Influencers in Brunei, Malaysia, and Indonesia Sharifah Nurul Huda Alkaff	155
9.	YouTube Islamic Web Series and the Mediatized Piety among Urban Muslims in Indonesia Andina Dwifatma	183
10.	Being Spiritual and Trendy: Singapore's Islamic Authority in the Age of Capitalism and Populism Norshahril Saat	198
	Index	221