

Contents

	page
Acknowledgements	07
General Introduction Alicia Schrikker and Doreen van den Boogaart	11
PART I: SETTING THE STAGE	17
1. Sri Lanka in the Eighteenth Century – The Historical Context Nirmal Ranjith Dewasiri	21
2. The Kandyan–Dutch War of 1762–1766 Doreen van den Boogaart and Chamikara Pilapitiya	35
3. Tangible and Intangible Aspects of Kandyan Cultural Diplomacy Asoka de Zoysa	49
4. Lubbert Jan van Eck Chris Nierstrasz	63
PART II: WHAT THE OBJECTS CONVEY	69
5. The Inscription on Lewke’s Cannon as a Window into the Political World of Lewke Disava Ganga Rajinee Dissanayaka	73
6. What the Sister Cannons in Windsor Castle Revealed Ruth Brown	85

7.	Lewke's Cannon: A Visual and Political Dialogue Captured in Gold and Silver Ganga Rajinee Dissanayaka	93
8.	Masterful Hybridity? The Enigmatic Provenance of the Gun Carriage Asoka de Zoysa and Alicia Schrikker	113
9.	Splendour of the Golden and Silver Kasthan and Golden Pihya Senarath Wickramasinghe	125
10.	Local Technological Knowhow and the Two Maha Thuwakku Weapons Chamikara Pilapitiya	147
	PART III: PROVENANCE, AFTERLIVES, AND RESTITUTION	169
11.	Wanderings: The Provenance of the Six Objects Doreen van den Boogaart and Alicia Schrikker	173
12.	Different Lives of the Cannon: Between Invention and Rediscovery Doreen van den Boogaart and Alicia Schrikker	187
13.	Restitution in Practice: A Conversation About Letting Go and Welcoming Objects Alicia Schrikker	203
	Epilogue: The Long History of Claims and the Making of "National Relics" Nira Wickramasinghe	211
	List of Figures	221
	Bibliography	229
	About the Authors	238
	Index	241